

Doin' The Town

With Lucille May

Mrs. Bill Edmunds and daughter, Carol, of Roanoke, Va., are featured in a recently published brochure on the beautiful Hotel Roanoke and Motor Inn — ten acres of old English charm in the heart of Roanoke, Va.

The pretty young mother does justice to the colorful folder. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert, who is three years old, of the Miss Dunn title and was in the State finals. She later went on to capture the Miss Virginia title.

Becky does IBM programming for Norfolk & Western Railroad and her husband is a coach at Cave Springs High in Roanoke.

The Edmunds also have a son, Bart, who is three years old.

The brochure depicts the Hotel Roanoke as "a delightful world in itself." It is complete with a health club, grill room, pool, beauty parlor, ball room and many other welcomed features.

Luncheon Fetes

Mrs. Ludie Nash

A luncheon in honor of Mrs. Ludie Nash was held last week. Entertaining was Mrs. J. O. Warren, chairman of the House Committee of the Dunn Senior Women's Club.

Mrs. Nash, who has served as hostess at the Woman's Club on South Layton Avenue for several years, has moved to Raleigh to assume the position as house mother for a fraternity at State College.

In appreciation of her loyal service, a beautiful sweater was given to Mrs. Nash.

Guests included members of the House and Ways and Means Committees of the club — Mrs. F. F. Pope, Mrs. C. L. Tarr, Sr., Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. J. B. Young and Mrs. Howard Dixon.

as hostess of the Dunn Women's Club. Mrs. Tart will still continue her present position, but will handle all night and weekend appointments at the clubhouse. She moved into her new home today.

Mrs. Ludie Nash who earlier this week moved to Raleigh to become house mother for a State College fraternity, has been hostess for the club for several years. Her efficient and loyal service was well received here.

Plans are well underway for something a little bit different for the yuletide season. The county's twenty home demonstration clubs are planning a Holiday House to be open to the public Dec. 3-5. The Lillington community building will be thrown en suite for the Christmas season with each club in charge of different phases of decorating.

Dunn Girl Scouts are working on a project to make Christmas a little happier for our service men in Viet Nam.

If they can get the names and addresses of our local men serving there, the girls will send Christmas decorations to them and also clothes, toys, etc. to be given to Viet Nam youngsters.
