

Adams Named Player Of Week

Wayne Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Adams, has been named Player of the Week for his outstanding offensive and defensive play at the Tarboro game here Friday night. He was elected by fellow players.

His coaches are expecting great things from him next year, as he has proved himself to be an outstanding player. Reports given today were that Adams has already been spotted by several coaches from well-known colleges as a possible player and next year is expected to be an All State candidate. A good student, Wayne gives 100% pleaded Wynn and Cameron guilty to the charges. He blamed the incident on the drinking episode and asked the court to give them a chance in view of the fact they are just getting over one prison sentence and might see the error of their way and go straight.

Lillington Man Dies Today

Joseph Bennett Barnes, 84-year-old retired farmer and business man of Route 1, Lillington died at his home early this morning. He had been in declining health for several months.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Lillington Methodist Church of which he was a member by Rev. Franklin Grill.

Burial will follow in the Harnett Memorial Park. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. Scott Bowers of Jackson; one son, Harper of Kansas City, Miss.; one sister, Mrs. R. E. Kirkland of Wilson; also seven grandchildren.

Police Checking Mystery Car

Lillington police are checking clues on a late model car found on Harnett Street Nov. 5.

effort on the ball field as well as in his studies and is an extremely aggressive ballplayer.

The Tarboro-Dunn game closed out the 1965-66 football season, with the Dunn Greenwaves holding a 10-1 overall record.

Sam Judge, inspector with the State Department of Motor Vehicles, is checking into the case. Articles found in the car and the rear-view mirror have been sent to the FBI Lab in Washington to be checked for fingerprints, Stogsdill said.

The car had a stolen license plate and a stolen serial number had been glued onto the motor. The car was identified by the serial number cut into the metal on the frame, he said.

Stogsdill said this is the second stolen car recovered by local police in two months.

Erwin Girl Scouts Visit Shut - Ins

The Junior Girl Scouts of Erwin Troop 183 with their leaders, Mrs. Stacy Whittenton and Mrs. Marion Butler, enjoyed visiting the shut-ins Tuesday afternoon.

Presenting those visited with baskets of fruit, the girls entertained them with songs and repeated for them the Scout Promises and Laws. Those enjoying the girls visits were John Hardin, Samuel Parker, and A. R. Marley, all of Erwin.

Girls Scouts were Faith Honeycutt, Joy Calloway, Revonda Byrd, Barbara Lee, Kathy Whitman, Teresa Carroll, Denise Crawford, Gayle Walls, Pam McLamb, Anita Bass, Kay Butler, Yvonne Avery, Ellen Stevens, Pandora Warren, Stacia Whittenton, Martha Harrington, Debbie Powell, Debbie Bradshaw and Jane Vann.

Prior to the afternoon service dinner was served in the church's fellowship hall.
