A FISH NET

Every good fisherman studies the habits of fish. He is familiar with their favorite bait, their haunts, their hiding places. This affords him an opportunity to use his net for a good haul. The Lord said for us to be fishers of men... to catch souls. "Come ye after me and I will make you fishers..." spoke the greatest fisherman of all to these men with the net. They were not acquainted with the deep holes, the pitfalls nor the sunning grounds. They were not having much luck catching fish because no one can do what he doesn't know how to do. But the Master showed them and their catches were in abundance. THEY wanted to catch fish but what do YOU want most out of life? Jesus says He can satisfy your wants, — the deepest hungers of men's hearts. Then quench the thirst of your warped soul through worship at your church Sunday. Learn how to use your net to catch souls for God.
