City Manager Reports On Varied Matters

Uzzle Lauds Harnett Spirit; Citizens Have Mind Of Own

By ARCHIE UZZLE, Dunn's City Manager

Certain remarks recently picked out Harnett County as having more crime than other counties did not go over very well with me. According to the papers there is plenty of crime all over our country and this is deplorable.

But with people being allowed to break some laws and not allowed to break others, all with the full blessings of some of our courts, and the full blessings of some of our lawmakers what can you expect?

If you plant turnip seeds, you get turnips. What I like about Harnett County. (Continued on Page Six)

33 Families Helped At Thanksgiving

Mrs. Grace S. Swain, executive secretary of the Harnett County Chapter of the American Red Cross, reported today that 33 different families had a happier Thanksgiving because of the annual Thanksgiving offering made by students in the Dunn schools.

In a letter of appreciation addressed to District Principal A. B. Johnson, school principals Evelyn Matthews and Robert Canady and the students, Mrs. Swain said: "THANK YOU from 3 families. You have made our Thanksgiving happier and healthier. It is a good feeling to know, 'someone cares'."

"It is not possible for each family to say Thanks personally so we are doing it for them. Thirty-three families (over 200 individuals). Each family was visited and investigated, and urgent need was established. We have some food left and this will be used, in cases of urgent need and should see many families over a rough period in their lives.

"Visiting families with your gifts has made our Thanksgiving a better one. We have seen sad faces, discouraged faces, hungry faces and disturbed faces become smiling faces. It has been a pleasure to be the bearer of your gifts. You have made Dunn a better place. (Continued on Page Six)

Red Cross Launches Drive

Many Families Cold; Public Asked To Help

The Harnett County Red Cross chapter today launched a fund drive called, "Warm Feeling" to raise money to provide heat for families without funds who are cold.

"Winter is with us," declared Executive Secretary Grace H. Swain. "The need for fuel is here. Many, many, many families do not have fuel. We know who they are. The need will become greater as days pass."

Contributions to this fund, said Mrs. Swain, will be used to purchase coal and blocks of wood to burn.

"It is discouraging to be cold; it is discouraging to be hungry. It is encouraging to know someone cares," added Mrs. Swain.

Special Forces Camp Is Hit By Communists

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today on his return from a quick inspection in Viet Nam that Hanoi soon would be sending men south at triple the rate of last summer and more than five times the rate of a year ago.

In a plane side news conference at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., he estimated the infiltration will approach 4,500 men per month in the forthcoming dry season.

"That compares with about 800 a month last year," McNamara said.

Bombing in North Viet Nam will continue to be concentrated on curtailing infiltration of men and "particularly to reduce the infiltration of equipment, supplies to support those forces," he said.

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist forces attacked a U. S. Special Forces camp 80 miles West of Saigon today and ambushed a government unit 265 miles to the northeast. The first attack was driven off with heavy enemy losses but outcome of the second battle was in doubt.

In the attack on the Special Forces camp near the Cambodian border, Vietnamese officers estimated at least 195 Communists were killed in the five hour battle, but American advisers said only 15 Viet Cong bodies were counted. Allied casualties were described as "light."

The second battle broke out in Binh Dinh Province 265 miles northeast of Saigon where an estimated battalion (about 1,200 Communists) struck a Vietnamese, regional forces military company en route to reinforce two platoons of popular force troops.

Tew's Sons File Suit For Life Insurance

State Senator Robert B. Morgan has filed a suit in Harnett Superior Court to prevent Durham Life Insurance Co. from paying John J. Tew, Jr. a $5,000 claim on the life of his divorced wife whom he admitted shooting to death last July 17.

Tew, who was adjudged not guilty of his wife's murder by reason of insanity and is now committed to Dorothea Dix State Hospital for treatment, has filed claim with the insurance company and is demanding payment of the policy to him.

Morgan filed the suit in behalf of the couple's two young sons, John J. Tew, III, age 18, and Donald Ray, age 12.

A motion in the case will be made before Judge Hubert E. May at a civil session of Harnett Superior Court on Monday, December 13.

The suit filed by Senator Morgan claims the husband is not entitled to collect the insurance because her death resulted from Tew's own "wrong-doing."

It asks that the $5,000 be paid to the two sons as second beneficiaries to the policy on their mother's life.

Tew, local furniture dealer and member of a well-known Harnett family, was acquitted of the slaying at the September court term. Defense attorney Everette Dofferymyre and Robert C. Bryan successfully contended that Tew was so jealous of his divorced wife, Mrs. Candy Suggs Tew, that he was insane at the time of the killing.

Evidence showed that Tew went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Neighbors, where his ex-wife was spending the night, and pumped six bullets into her body early on the morning of July 17th.

While confined to jail awaiting trial, Tew executed deeds of trust transferring considerable property. (Continued On Page Six)

Baptist Giving Up 46% In 5 Years

Dunn Church Adopts Budget Of $89,275

Dunn's First Baptist Church has adopted a budget totaling $89,275 for 1966. The church's operating budget totals $61,975 and goals for social offering totaling $27,300 account for the rest of it. The special goals include $20,000 on the church's building fund.

Members of the church, the largest in Harnett, have increased their giving from $83,107 in 1960-61 to $92,481 the past year, a gain of 11 per cent. The new budget is slightly less than that for 1965.

A total of $1,192.00 per week will be required to meet the operating budget or $1,666.67 per week for the operating budget and the special goals budget. Rev. Thomas M. Freeman, pastor, pointed out that only $5 per week per resident family would more than meet every figure in the budget.

Emmett Aldredge was chairman of the budget committee. It was unanimously adopted Sunday. The only question from the floor was whether or not it included funds for the Federal Council of Churches. It does not, since Baptists do not subscribe to that program.

Howard M. Lee expressed regret the budget provided only $100 for the church's ministry to the needy and pointed out that many citizens of the community are in need of food, clothing, etc. While public welfare now has this responsibility, Lee disputed a claim that all are being cared for.

The new budget provides increases for the associational missionary salary increases for the pastor and church secretary, addition of maid services, increases for education, Sunday school, Royal Ambassadors, employees' taxes, pulpit supply.

It eliminates completely local missions and decreases expenditures for the cooperative program, Sunbeams, laundry service, radio fees, visual aids, revival expenses, utilities, piano upkeep, contingencies debt retirement, the Baptist hospital and cuts into half funds for Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and Christian education.

Salaries Take Big Slice Salaries for paid workers of the church are $10,000. (Continued on Page Six)
