United Methodist Women To Hear Mrs Greenfield

BY WILLIE MAE PORTER
Post Society Writer

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN OF St. Mark's United Methodist Church will observe Women's Day Sunday, Mrs. Felicia B. Greenfield, wife of the president of Johnson C. Smith University, will be the speaker for the 11 o'clock worship hour.

She will talk from the theme: "The Virtue Of The Woman in the Home, Church and Community."

The evening program will feature a panel discussion of the theme. Panelists will be Mrs. Gertrude Parler, former director of Headstart, Mrs. Lula Moore, project director, Hornets Girls Scouts, and Mrs. Betty Harris, Model Cities Planner.

The public is invited to attend these services at 917 Clanton Rd.

LOVELY CLAUDETTE ROBINSON is going to get married. The announcement came from her mother, Mrs. Mary Bob Irby Robinson of 3113 Marney Rd., who says the ceremony will be performed at Ebenezer Baptist Church at 4 p.m. on Saturday, June 2.

Miss Robinson is officially engaged to Harley L. Dewitt.

THOSE IN ATTENDANCE are still giving praise to the interesting address Mrs. Mary Turner Harper gave Sunday at the Mother's Day program at First United Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Harper is the Associate Professor of English at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

Many women of the church were made happy. Happiest and most surprised of all was Mrs. Ethel Goodwin, who was selected "Mother of the Year." Flowers were placed on the altar in memory of Mrs. Alice Blair, Mrs. Daisy Spears, Mrs. Annie M. Halsey, Mrs. Georgia Peoples, Mrs. Grace Brown, Mrs. Isabel Ezell and Mrs. Lucy Kearns. The young people of the church sponsored a reception for the "Mother of the Year" following the service.

MRS. VIRGINIA STEP-TEAU OF VAN BUREN PLACE was a gracious hostess to the Alpha Alpha Chapter of the Alpha Pi Chi Sorority Saturday night.

MRS. ULYSSES G. FORD was the speaker for the Mother's Day Observance at Simpson-Gillespie United Methodist Church. She was most interesting.

Simpson-Gillespie United Methodist Church will be the scene of a conference Sunday in which Dr. Cecil L. Heckerd, District Superintendent of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, will be in charge of the arrangements.

THE PASTOR'S AID of the New Emmanuel Congregational Church are making final plans for a Fashion Show at the White House Inn on Monday night, June 4.

The organization is affiliated with the Planned Parenthood of North Carolina.

As the only Black woman on the Committee, Mrs. Adams will serve as the first vice president.

She is a very active mother of three lovely daughters and two bouncy grandchildren.

Mrs. Adams has a great love for civic and community work. She is affiliated with numerous organizations that are designed to help the less fortunate.

She is the first vice president of the National Committee of Household Employment of Washington, D.C.; a member of Myers Tabernacle AME Zion Church; member of the Tabernacle Missionary and Stewardess Boards; past vice president of the Second Ward High School PTA Council; member of the Mecklenburg and North Carolina Directors of OIC, and member of the Charlotte Bureau of Employment, Placement and Training.

She is the first vice president of Domestic United of New York City and was one of the leaders of the benefit for DUO held in New York City recently by the Trade Women of African Heritage.

REV. A. JACKSON RYANS, the distinguished minister at Ebenezer Baptist Church, officiated the ordination of Tennyson Johnson, Clayton Cuthbertson and Toussant Holland Sunday. They are the newest member of the Ebenezer Baptist Church's Deacon Board.

The Men's Chorus, under the direction of H.L. Miller, provided the background music for the very impressive service.

THE RAINBOW SOCIAL CLUB HAD A BALL AT THEIR REGULAR meeting at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Ratchford on Seigle Ave. last week. The ladies had Miss Vernelle Gant, Mrs. Zora Alexander and Mrs. Julia Brewer as their special guest.

Also attending the gala affair were, Mesdames Hattie Harris, Letitia Cureton, Bertha Pearson, Mary Hinton, Beulah Jones, Johnnie Pressley, Bertha Jones, and Ora Dick, all members of the very fine organization.

The group also included a little get-together for the hostess who was celebrating her birthday. Mrs. Ratchford was showered with many nice gifts.

The Cuthbertson's -- Andrew, and Elizabeth, along with Mrs. Ella Bates and her sons, Robert and Otis, were visitors in Greensboro last week. They report an enjoyable time spent with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lee Love.

EMPHASIS HERE LAST WEEK WERE ON FAMILY REUNIONS. The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kearns at 2249 English Drive served as the headquarters for the reunion of the Charlie Moore family here last weekend.

There were more than 83 members of the family present and a good time was had by all.

It was a touching moment last Wednesday morning when friends of Mrs. Emma Knight got together at her home for fellowship and exchange of experience.

Mrs. Knight, one of the city's most popular nurses, has been a shut-in for several months. Mrs. Eillie M. Enoch and Mrs. Nancy Gaston were the special guest at the affair which also had Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffith, Mrs. Birdell Lawhorn, Walter Blakeney, Mrs. Dessie Cowans and Mrs. Bertha Sowell in attendance.

Mrs. Enoch and Mrs. Gaston, both former

Charlotteans, are now making their homes in New York City.

VISITORS FROM WASHINGTON, D.C., WHO ENJOYED A SHORT, BUT PLEASANT STAY IN TOWN LAST WEEK WERE: Miss Catherine Lee, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, Mrs. H.B. Pickett, Mrs. Cora Small, Mrs. Mattie Houston, Miss Jennie M. Davis, Miss Sylvia Davis, Rev. Albert Small, Miss Alberta Small, Miss Darlene Small, Mrs. Olivia McClure, Mrs. Noval McClure, Teamer McClure and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hayes.

VISITORS FROM SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. HERE LAST WEEKEND WERE Joseph Thomas and Annie and Frances Springs, who were the house guests of Mrs. Carrie Jefferson of English Dr.

NFP*

NFP is Navy jargon for the NUCLEAR FIELD PROGRAM. It covers a wide range of technical specialties, all of which require a high level of skill and training. No, you don't have to know thing one about nuclear physics to qualify for the Navy NFP! What you must have is your high school diploma, or GED certificate, skill in math and science, and the willingness to tackle approximately two-years of the most interesting and demanding training the Navy can provide.

This training is no breeze, so don't expect it to be easy—but the challenge will make your future a whole lot brighter—in or after the Navy.

At the completion of your training you will take your place in the Navy's nuclear power program as a highly trained, well paid nuclear propulsion specialist. For complete information call toll free anytime: 800-841-8000 (in Georgia call 800-342-5855) or mail in this coupon today. The Navy needs the right people for its NUCLEAR FIELD PROGRAM—it could be you.
