Unique Group

Fuerstman's Racquet Busters

Long before Judge McMillan ever considered equalizing the school system in Charlotte, the freedom-Dilworth Tennis Association was a completely integrated active organization.

As soon as Black Charlotte started to show up in the public parks especially if they had a tennis racket in their hands they were instantly welcomed into a group of tennis players that has been playing at the courts during the summer time and at Lata (Dilworth School) tennis courts during the fall and winter season.

group of about six enthusiasts got together and decided to share the cost of the tennis balls for each of the Saturday and Sunday morning sessions.

When Fuerstman is out of the city on weekends, Louis Lineburger and Bill Roberts of Humble Oil take charge and follow the same principles that Fuerstman began.

Statesville Avenue Church Has Unusual Outdoor Services

The Statesville Avenue United Presbyterian Church celebrated a "Feast of Fellowship" in Newton N.C. on last Sunday on the spacious and beautiful lawn-park area, through the courtesy of Mrs. and Mrs. Coulter, parents of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tatum.

Approximately 125 members and friends who had arrived by bus and private cars participated in the worship. Afterwards baskets filled with food of every variety were spread with no evidence of inflation. Following the eats children, youth and adults engaged in games, play and relaxation, which made the day more than a picnic or an outing, but a "Feast of Fellowship" that was superb.

Each participant would put in 50 c and this would cover the balls and any incidental equipment that the group might use such as mops, to dry off courts after rain, chock liners, a net repair, etc.

Bill McCombs, Assistant Supervisor at the University Park Station has been a member of the group for the last few years, and claims that he has never seen another organization like it anywhere. Tom Brown, of Armour and Co., has been playing with the group five or six years, Alex Thompson of the Board of Education Maintenance, has been a constant participant. Dorothy Clark, who is the assistant manager of Toy Department at K-Mart on Independence Blvd., is also a regular player.

Under the banner of "A Feast of Fellowship" a 12 noon out-door worship was led by the pastor, Dr. Thos. A. Jenkins. The organ prelude and the offertory were by cassette tapes produced by Mrs. Gwendolyn Jenkins Bozeman, of Dayton Ohio.

Mrs. Lucile Maxwell and Mr. Fred Tatum headed the Steering Committee.
