

The Post
Reaches Nearly
75 Per Cent
More Negro
Readers

THE CHARLOTTE POST

"Charlotte's Fastest Growing Community Weekly"

Your Best
Advertising
Medium In The Lucrative Black
Market
Call 392-1306

VOL. 2 NO. 21

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA 28206 - THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1973

Price 20

CIAA Tourney Tickets Go On Sale

Tickets for the 29th Annual Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association Basketball Tournament went on sale Thursday, November 1.

The tournament will be played at the Greensboro Coliseum Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 28, March 1-2, 1974. Four big sessions, featuring the eight teams in the conference are planned for the three-day affair.

According to Commissioner L.D. Smith, there is no price increase for tickets. Premium reserve ducats remain $18.00 per set and other reserve seats $14.00 per set. Special prices prevail for students and these tickets will be on sale at the member institution.

Tickets can be secured from the CIAA Ticket Office, Greensboro Coliseum, Greensboro, North Carolina or from any member institution.

The 29th Annual CIAA Basketball Tournament is being dedicated to the memory of T.L. Reeves, former Head Basketball Coach, Fayetteville State University. Reeves piloted the 1973 Bronco team to the tourney title and was voted the "Most Outstanding Coach" during the 1972 and 1973 season. Reeves passed suddenly in September.

Smith assured season ticket holders that they will have the first opportunity to purchase the same premium seats that they held last year. Indications point to more than 40,000 persons ascending to Greensboro for the 1974 CIAA Basketball Tournament.

Business

Fellowships

Available

Graduate business fellowships for minority students are available through the UNC School of Business Administration in Chapel Hill.

Blacks, American Indians and Spanish-surnamed Americans are eligible for the fellowships which provide tuition and living allowance of $2,000 for the first year of the master of business administration (M.B.A.) program and $1,000 for the second year.

Financed by grants from 135 U.S. corporations, the fellowships are sponsored by the Consortium for Graduate Study in Management which UNC joined in January. The consortium is a six-university program to encourage minority men and women to enter management careers in business. In addition to UNC, it includes Indiana University, Washington University in St. Louis and the Universities of Rochester, Southern California and Wisconsin.

Students may apply to the M.B.A. program of any of the universities.

Credit Cards Honored

Layaway

Bed Room Suite
Dinnette Sets-R

We have a new shipment

Maxwell-C
Furniture

500 E

Free Parking Next Door

MISS CHERYLL BITTLE
...Oldest Of Five Children

Beauty Of Week

Post Staff Selects

Cheryll Bittle

Cheryll Bittle, the oldest of 4 sisters and 1 brother, is this week's Charlotte Post Beauty.

The West Mecklenburg High School Junior is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bittle of 2604 Remington Street in the University Park Residential Section.

Cheryll is 16 years old and weighs 118 pounds. She is 5 feet 8 inches tall and measures 33-23-34.

Miss Bittle is a member of Le Charmentelles Social Club and a member of the Distributive Education Clubs of America.

Through her membership in the D.E. Club, she has become a working young lady and is presently employed at a sales clerk at Belk.

Department Store in Southpark, thanks to her D.E. teacher, Miss Tomanchek, says Cheryll.

Cheryll is a member of Second Calvary Baptist Church, pastored by Reverend J.M. Kennedy. She is a member of the Junior Missionary in the church.

Our beauty likes all sports, dancing and cooking. She also likes shooting pool, bowling and modern dancing.

She shoots pool at Cavaliers billiards on Morehead Street

Soul City Community

On November 9, 1973, at 11:00 a.m., ground will be broken on the first construction of the free-standing new community of Soul City, North Carolina.

The development of the new town of Soul City, planned eventually to house 50,000 inhabitants and to provide economic up-lift and social and educational benefits to the depressed rural Warren County area, is the ambitious and innovative project ever undertaken by a minority developer, Floyd B. McKissick Enterprises, Inc.

November 9th festivities will start with a banquet at 11:00 a.m. at Soul City at 9:00 a.m. Governor Jim Holshouser will be the guest of honor. A reception will be held at the Governor's Mansion in Durham at 3:00 p.m. and at 8:00 p.m. a banquet and show will take place at the Cameron Indoor Stadium, Duke University, Durham. At the banquet salutes will be given by the honored guests and Mr. McKissick will deliver an address.

and her bowling average is between 80 and 85.

Cheryll was in a dance group at University Park Elementary School that performed at different schools but she says she has learned most of her modern dancing skills "on her own". She likes to do the "Bump" which she learned from watching "Soul Train" on TV. She says she learned most of her dance steps from watching Soul Train.

Cheryll says she doesn't watch TV much and gets most of her news from reading the papers.

"We asked Cheryll if she thought President Nixon should be impeached and she said "Uh huh." Why? "He shouldn't hold no office because I believe he is not right." How? "Because he wouldn't give up the tapes." fourth, respectively.

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Cheryll says she would like to attend modeling school and become a fashion model though she has not decided on a school yet.

She says she would like to be an airline stewardess because "I like flying and traveling"

Sunday Afternoon

Matthews-Murkland To Celebrate Homecoming

Fayetteville

Hosts Bulls

Saturday

Fayetteville State University will close out its 1973 gridiron season on Saturday, November 10, when they host the Johnson C. Smith University Golden Bulls.

The CIAA conference game will be played on the FSU University Athletic Field and the kick-off is set for 1:30 p.m. Advanced tickets for the contest can be purchased at the University Business Office.

Fayetteville State will be out to salvage a break-even season. Coach Raymond McDougal has led his Broncos to two successive winning campaigns and a win over Johnson C. Smith would give the Broncos a 5-5 mark for the 1973 season.

The Broncos are bruised and battered and Coach McDougal is hoping to have all his charges ready for the contest. Among those suffering with injuries are Glenn McCoy, James Godwin, Arnold Johnson, Charlie Rowd, James Glasson, and a host of others.

McDougal said that most of the week will be spent on polishing the Broncos' offense and reviewing various defenses to stop the J.C. Smith Golden Bulls.

J.C. Smith is the most explosive team in the CIAA. They lead the league in total offense, averaging more than 340 yards per contest and they have the best passing team in the league with 73 completions in 157 attempts for 1,456 yards.

Quarterback Luther Carter is their offensive leader. He has connected for 14 touchdowns and leads the league in total offense with 1,114 yards.

Running back Mike Gibson is the Golden Bulls' rushing leader with over 800 yards in nine games. He has also scored 11 touchdowns and six conversions for 72 points.

Sunday Morning

Little Rock Plans 'Men's Day' Program

Special to the Charlotte Post "Men of Destiny" describes both the theme and the setting of Little Rock AME Zion Church's 11 a.m. worship service for Sunday, Nov. 11. For on this day the men of the Church, past and present, will be honored and appreciated for the part each has played in shaping the destiny of the Church.

"The purpose of the program is to recognize the many contributions the men of Little Rock have made and to set into focus the real virtue of man," said the Rev. William M. White, pastor of the Church.

"Our effort is also to bring more men into the Church and to inspire more men to commit their lives to the Christian way," he said.

MRS. PEGGY BECKWITH
...Executive Director

Sickle Cell

Seminar Planned For Wednesday

A seminar to give a "clear understanding about sickle cell disease, problems of the disease and what can be done," will be held here Wednesday, Nov. 14 at the Sheraton Center, 301 S. McDowell St.

The meeting, which is sponsored by the Association For Sickle Cell Disease for Charlotte, Mecklenburg, Inc. The office of Continuing Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and The North Carolina Division of Health Services, will feature some of the nation's most outstanding authorities on the disease which primarily affects Black people.

Mrs. Dorothy O. Blackburn, Public Information Specialist of the National

Sickle Cell Disease Program in Bethesda, Md., will address the session at 9:15 a.m. and Dr. C.W. McMillan, professor of pediatrics and head of Division of Pediatric Hematology at the University of North Carolina Medical School at Chapel Hill will speak from the subject: Diagnoses, Genetics, Clinical Manifestations and Treatment in Sickle Cell Disease" at 10:15 a.m.

Following a luncheon break, Dr. E. Robert Neely Branch, Director of the Crippled Children and Development Disabilities Branch of the Division of Health Services for the State of North Carolina, will discuss the Sickle Cell Disease on the state level.

Rev. Cuthbertson Is Guest Speaker

The congregation of the historic Matthews-Murkland United Presbyterian Church will celebrate their fourth annual Homecoming at the 109-year-old church on Olde Providence Rd. inside Providence Township here Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

And, unlike on the first three occasions for observing homecoming during which time most of the attention was trained on the fund-raising efforts of the membership to build a new church, Sunday's celebration will be a happy occasion during which time most of the attention will be focused on the successful completion of the campaign.

The new Matthews-Murkland Church is presently being constructed on an adjoining site. It will consist of a sanctuary that will seat 300, an all purpose unit with complete kitchen facilities and a day care center and kindergarten which will accommodate 100 children.

It will also house eight classrooms, complete office and study for the pastor, child care facility for worshippers, five rest rooms and a bell tower.

The total cost of the 200 thousand dollar structure includes landscaping, parking area and play ground. It is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 1974.

Rev. J. Andrew Cuthbertson, pastor of the New Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker and the music will be rendered by the choirs from Pleasant Hill and other churches in the area.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Len Cuthbertson of Matthews, Rev. Cuthbertson is one of the four members of Matthews-Murkland, who left the congregation to go into the ministry. He is a former deacon of the church.

In its beginning back in 1864, under the leadership of the Rev. Sidney S. Murkland, Murkland withdrew from the Concord Presbytery in order to minister to the ex-slaves and their children. Dr. S.C. Alexander and Willis L. Miller were the co-founders of the church.

Murkland merged with Matthews Chapel Church in 1969. The congregation has experienced a steady growth in the community since the merger.

Rev. D.O. Hennigan, a graduate of the Johnson C. Smith University Theological Seminary, has served the congregation as pastor since 1965.

James C. Funderburke is the chairman of the Homecoming Program Committee and James Stitt is the co-chairman.

Governor

Proclaims

Soul City Day

Friday, November 9, 1973 has been designated "Soul City Day" in North Carolina in a proclamation issued by Governor James E. Holshouser, Jr. on October 30, 1973.

In the proclamation, Governor Holshouser states that "This creative and innovative concept of creating a new town for the purpose of establishing jobs, hope and opportunity and a new way of life is worthy of recognition by all North Carolinians."

Soul City Day will be celebrated in honor of the groundbreaking of Soul City, the new town's first construction. Soul City is an industrial incubator facility designed to provide up to 350 new jobs (thus laying the groundwork for the industrial base upon which the freestanding new community of Soul City will rise.

Governor Holshouser will give the keynote address at the ceremonies

PAST PRESIDENT of the Charlotte Chapter of the JCSU Alumni Association, Mrs. Helena Cunningham, pins orchid bouquet of Mrs. H. Greenfield during annual alumni dance last Saturday night. (PHOTO BY PEELER)