

Mrs. Ross Hosts Young At Hearts

In a beautifully decorated Greenville Center with an Autumn setting, the Young At Heart Club held their monthly meeting on Nov. 21.

At the luncheon meeting, a pre-Thanksgiving program was given by Mrs. Aldrich Ross after a prayer was given by Dr. J. W. Smith. Thanksgiving readings were given by Mrs. Sally P. Kelly, and a short talk was given on "Am I really thankful," "For what am I thankful," and "How thankful am I" was given by Mrs. Hardy Liston. A memorial service was held in honor of Ms. Willette Lino, a deceased member of the club. Remarks were given during the service by Mrs. Estella Stowe and Dr. Smith and a poem was read by Mrs. Kelly.

Mrs. Key, and Walter and Elihu Alexander were the host and hostesses for the meeting.

Guests attending the meeting were Mrs. Flora Franklin of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Mary Hunt, Ms. Claudia McFadden, Mrs. Lutiya Martin and Mrs. Thomasina Wardlow, all of Charlotte.

Members of the club present were Mr. and Mrs. George Lyerly, Mrs. Minnie Gaddy, Mrs. Olivia Mitchell, Mrs. Eva Latham, Mrs. Vallie Parker, Mrs. Ola Jenkins, Mrs. Fanny Dobson, Mrs. Janye W. Hemphill, Mrs. Mattie Levi, Mrs. Emma Flowe, Mrs. Annabelle McClary, Mrs. Amy Coleman, Rev. Clyde A. Liggin, William Billings, and William McMillan. G. F. Nash, Jr. is president of the club and Mrs. Kelly is corresponding secretary.

Participants in the 7th Annual "Miss China Grove" ceremony recently held at Sterling Elementary School helped the church raise more than $10,000.00 in a nine-week period.

The proceeds were raised for the China Grove AME Zion Church building fund. Rev. M. L. Houston Sr. is the church's pastor.

Miss Lynn B. Coleman

Named To Who's Who

Miss Lynn Bett Coleman, West Mecklenburg High School senior, was recently notified that she is to be featured in the Eighth Annual Edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1973-74, the largest student award publication in the nation

Students from over 20,000 public, private and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service in the books. Less than three per cent of the junior and senior class students nation-wide are awarded this recognition.

Miss Coleman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coleman of 1470 Plumstead Rd. She is active in choir and small ensemble (westones) orchestra, choir (chambe) CPCC, voice and summer youth program.

She is also having her biography published in the book and will compete for one of 10 scholarship awards of $500 to $1,000 funded by the publishers. She has been invited to participate in the firm's annual "Survey of High Achievers."

Miss Coleman plans to attend Florida A&M University following her graduation.

Miss Angela Harold Wins

"Miss YWCA 1975 Contest"

Miss Angela Harold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Love Harold, was crowned "Miss YWCA 1975" Friday night at the McCrory Branch YMCA, 3801 Beatties Ford Rd.

An honor student at Hawthorne Junior High School, Miss Harold was escorted by Mack Cox and received the honored crown from Mrs. Andrienne Ray Spears.

Miss Allenia Mayes was the second runner-up. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mayes and a student at Harding High School. The Third runner-up honors went to Miss Jacqueline Davis, a student at Ranson Junior High School. Miss Gwen Boyce, daughter of Mrs. Mable Boyce was the fourth-runner-up. She is a student at Kennedy Junior High School.

The pageant was sponsored by the program department of McCrory YMCA. The "Miss YWCA Ball" had "Beauty Is" as its theme. Wendall McCain served as crown bearer. He is the son of Mrs. Franklin McCain. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faulkner, Michelle served as flower bearer.

Mrs. Catherine P. Williams, program director of the YMCA, said the top three winners will ride on the YMCA float in the annual North Carolina Carrousel Parade through downtown Charlotte on Thanksgiving Day.

Family Life Luncheon Planned For December 11

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Family Life Council announces its 1974 Annual Family Life Program - a luncheon to be held on Wednesday, December 11, 12 noon til 1:30 p.m. at The Park Road YWCA.

The program will feature the esteemed "Father of Marriage Enrichment", Dr. David Mace, Professor of Family Sociology from Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston Salem, North Carolina. His theme will be "Better Marriages - Better Families - Better Communities"; a brief history of the council by a charter member, Mrs. J. Z. Watkins and the proposed program for 1975.

All groups and organizations who promote any phase of family life education or whose job calls for working with various family and individual problems, are urged to attend. The main purposes of the council is to serve as a sounding board for matters dealing with family relation through its cross section of representation, to coordinate, to initiate, to promote family life education through periodic and annual conferences, and to provide leadership and support to local groups and committees dealing with family life problems.

The council is now taking membership for the 1975 calendar year and, reservations for the December 11th luncheon. Luncheon reservations must be in on or before December 5th. For more information concerning the luncheon or 1975 dues, please call Mrs. Irene Millroy, Council Treasurer, 372-1580 or Mrs. Mary C. Martin, Council President and Home Economics Extension Agent, telephone 374-2693.

Luncheon tickets are $3.25 each. Come see and hear what aids there are to strengthening individual and family relationships one to another. Church groups and other organizations who are promoting family life programs are urged to send notices to the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Family Life Council Attn: Mary C. Martin, President, 1501 I-85 North three weeks to one month prior to the activity.
