Lady Day Social Club Celebrates First Year

The Lady Day Social Club, 15 years old last November 1st, held its first Christmas party Saturday night at Holiday Inn Downtown, from 8 until 12 and approximately 150 of their friends helped them celebrate the occasion with dancing and frolicking and feasting. "Everybody has called and said it was very nice and that they enjoyed it," said club Secretary Janie B. Seegers, who is one of the original members of the club that was organized in 1959.

Mrs. Seegers added, "We are planning a similar affair around November of next year."

The Lady Day Social Club, organized with four members, now has six and plans to "take in" some new members soon, according to Mrs. Seegers. The present membership is composed of: Willette Falls President; Lula Mobley, Vice President and Treasurer (one of the original members); Janie B. Seegers, Secretary; Lillian Ehifer, Assistant Secretary; Bobbie Robinson, Chairman of the Social Committee; and Minnie Torrence, Chairman of the Flower Committee.

The club's colors are red and blue and their motto is: "Striving for Higher Ground." They meet two times a month, on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays, and one of their projects has been sending children to summer camp.

Local Church Leaders To Visit Prisoners

The annual interdenominational religious visitation to prisoners in the Mecklenburg County Jail will begin at 2 p.m. Dec. 23 and will include the singing of Christmas carols, short devotions and talks with the men and women by church leaders, and the giving of bags of Yule candy and fruit.

United Methodist Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., and Roman Catholic Bishop Michael Joseph Begley, both with headquarters offices in Charlotte, will join with Mrs. Ezra Moore, the president of church Women United, and with the Rev. Smith Turner, pastor of Grace A.M.E. Zion Church, to lead the event.

Local Links Assist Miss Anita Stroud

The Charlotte Chapter of Links, Inc. assisted Miss Anita Stroud with her Christmas activities by taking 26 of Miss Stroud's "children" to view the Christmas exhibits at the Mint Museum of Art on Friday, December 13.

After the tour the children were treated to dinner at McDonald's Cafeteria in the Mini-Center on Beatties Ford Road at LaSalle Street.

In addition to serving hamburgers and French fries to the delighted youngsters, Mr. McDonald sat with the children and talked to them about the importance of their education and of setting and pursuing life goals.

The activity was a part of the Links' Fine Arts and Services to Youth program. Mrs. Nancy Williams and Mrs. Lois Barnhill were co-chairpersons of the activity. Assisting were Mrs. Maria Wynn, Mrs. Gladys Greene and Mrs. Thelma Byers.
