

Food Town's Continued Pledge To You . . .

LFPINC IN '75

Food Town has offered customers the "Lowest Food Prices In North Carolina" for seven years now, and that LFPINC is still working . . . saving customers millions of dollars a year. There are over 5,500 every day low prices at Food Town, and our surveys prove they're lower, independent surveys, prove they're lower, and our customers tell us they're lower. But if you really want proof positive, make your own shopping test and see if you don't come out with a lower grocery total at Food Town. The total tells the truth, and the total is what LFPINC is all about.
