

LOGAN CHAPEL CME CHURCH CHOIR

.....Renders outstanding performance

With First Concert

Logan Chapel CME Choir Thrills Capacity Crowd

Under the expert and magnificent leadership of Mrs. Louise Harris, the Logan Chapel CME Church Choir blossomed in its musical performance last Sunday.

In their first concert the 25 member-choir and several guest artists sang before a capacity audience in the church sanctuary amid lighted candlelabrums entwined with ivy.

Mrs. Louise Harris, guest directress and soloist is an active member of Antioch Baptist Church where she is Assistant minister of music. She is well known throughout the Charlotte area and surrounding cities and states for her musical talents.

The choir was accompanied by Livingstone Alumni

The Charlotte Chapter of the Livingstone College Alumni Association will be sponsoring a Mid-winter Dance, Saturday, February 1, following the Livingstone-Johnson C. Smith Basketball Game.

The dance will be held at the Excelsior Club from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. "Sounds Unlimited", a discoteque type group, will be the entertainers for the night. Tickets can be purchased from any member of the Alumni Association. They are two dollars in advance and two dollars and fifty cents at the door.

The evening promises to be very exciting. Everyone is on the organ by Ivan Davis, Minister of Music, at Antioch Baptist church. His musical talents are also widely known as he plays for many church, civic and community functions. He is musician for the Gospel Choir of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Mr. Davis is a graduate of West Charlotte High School. He attended the Governor's School of Fine Arts in Winston-Salem; North Carolina Central University in Durham and Millikin University, Decatur, Illinois. He was also a soloist in the concert.

Evangelist James C. Davis, guest pianist and soloist is a native of Mount Holly. He is a member of Mt. Zion F.B.H. Holiness Church, Charlotte, N. C. and serves in the music department of New Hope and cordially invited to come to the Excelsior and dance to the music of this time group. What better place is there to go to celebrate a victory, regardless of which team you are cheering for?

Faith Memorial Churches. He is also pianist for the Gospel Lights of Charlotte.

Greg Harris, guest youth participant in the choir is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Secura Harris. He is a member of Antioch Baptist church where he active in the Youth and Mass Choirs.

Misses Fanetta Craig and Latone Rivers, marshals for the concert led the choir. The ladies were dressed in long pink dresses and the men in formal cool pink shirts. Rev. James H. Cotten, Pastor of the church introduced the concert and Mrs. Lena Helton Pickens, President of the choir, welcomed special guests and visitors.

Featured soloists, in addition to special guest soloists, were soprano soloists Louise Wilson, Carolyn Stafford and Lillie Miller; Alto soloists Dianne Abraham, Evelyn Murphy, Louise Doster, Valencia Swaringer, Luvenia Garland and Marilyn Swaringer; Tenor soloists Ronald Swaringer and Bobby Clyburn.

A reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall immediately following the concert.

Another great concert is planned to be held at the church on February 9. The Stewardess Boards of the Church will sponsor the Pleasant Hill Choir in Concert on the occasion of their Women's Day Celebration at 2:30 P.M. The Pleasant Hill Choir is directed by Mrs. Jo Evelyn Lippert.
