

MRS. LEWIS GENE TUCKER
...She was Miss Cassandra Wilson

Miss Cassandra Wilson
Weds Lewis G. Tucker

Amidst the beautifully decorated background of greenery and lighted candles at Little Rock A.M.E. Zion Church recently, Cassandra Elaine Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Wilson of Charlotte, became the bride of Lewis Gene Tucker, son of James Tucker and Mrs. Bertha C. Tucker of Winston-Salem.

Rev. William M. White, minister of Little Rock A.M.E. Zion Church performed the double ring ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. Harvey O. Graham, minister of Metropolitan United Presbyterian Church.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Wilson was attired in her mother's bridal gown which was made by Mrs. Viola Byers of Charlotte. The gown was made of off-white bridal satin with panels of imported Chantilly lace down the front and back that extended into a chapel train of Chantilly lace. The dress had a fitted bodice with Chantilly lace, peter pan collar and long pointed sleeves. Her headpiece, designed by Mrs. John Maxwell, was cathedral-style with matching floor length veil. For jewelry Cassandra wore tiny pearl earrings, a gift of her aunt. She carried a white bible with a white orchid and streamers with tiny yellow roses. As she marched down the aisle with her father, the bride paused, gave one long-stemmed rose to her mother and kissed her. At the end of the ceremony as the bride and groom passed out, Cassandra paused, kissed the groom's mother and presented her with a long-stemmed yellow rose.

Mrs. William Wright, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Miss Mona C. Jones, a friend of the bride was maid of honor. Both wore light green polyester crepe long sleeved, three tier floor length dresses with emerald velvet around each tier. They wore matching headpieces, bonnet-shaped with a bunch of cloth spring flowers at the back. They carried bouquets of spring flowers shaped like fans. They wore a single strand of pearls and matching tiny pearl earrings.

The bridesmaids dressed in yellow gowns and matching headpieces like the honor attendants were Mrs. Joseph Ruscito and Misses Charlotte Edge, Arlene V. Fiddmont, Frieda Graham and Brenda Sarvatt. Miss Karen Chapple was a junior bridesmaid.

Harry Leak of Winston-Salem served as best man. The groomsmen were Coleman Freeman, Stanley Graham, Edward Patterson, Vernon Sims, Willard Tanner, Michael Williams and Gerald M. Wilson, brother of the bride.

Little Yolanda G. Leake and Myra A. Stitt were flower girls and wore long yellow dresses with matching head pieces identical to the bridesmaids. They carried fan-shaped flower baskets. Mrs. John Maxwell made the dresses and designed the headpieces.

Little Marc-Brown was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose an emerald green crepe and chiffon long-sleeved gown with coordinating accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Tucker, wore a light blue crepe floor length dress with matching accessories.

L. Gerardo Stroud was organist. He was accompanied by the talented violinist, Miss Ina J. Jones. Miss Juliet Smith sang "Because", "Ave Maria", and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." Michael Wright, a friend of the groom, sang "For Once In My Life," "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer," following the ceremony.

The reception was held in the main lounge of the Student Union on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. The color scheme of yellow and green was carried out. On the bride's table was a four tier wedding cake with a running fountain between the third and fourth tier. Each guest was given a scroll upon which was inscribed in gold a thank-you sentiment from the bride and groom.

Mrs. Zoel Hargrave directed the wedding and served as hostess at the reception. Other hostesses were Mrs. Raymond P. Rorie, Mrs. Hilda Bookout, Mrs. Mildred Taylor, Mrs. Lathan Phillips, Mrs. George J. Leake, Mrs. Henry Rouse III, Miss Laura Liverman and Miss Margaret L. Carr, Godmother of the bride.

The bride, a graduate of Garinger High School, attended Winston-Salem State University where she was a voice major. Mr. Tucker, R. J. Reynolds Scholar, is a senior at Winston-Salem State University with a major in math. He is employed as an accountant technician by the Department of Human Services for the city of Winston-Salem. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. The couple will reside in Winston-Salem.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hines, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. James Chapple, Mrs. Kenneth Chapple, Montclair, New Jersey; Mrs. Mattie Ray and Mr. Embra Morris, Greensboro; Mrs. Jessie Harion, and Mrs. Cora Avery, Roanoke, Virginia.
