

Its Third Anniversary

Sunday, February 16th, marked the third anniversary of the beginning of Circle Number 5 at South Tryon Presbyterian Church.

The circle members observed their anniversary with a special service at the regular 11 o'clock worship hour, which was also a tribute and recognition of the culmination of Black History Week.

The members of the circle took charge of the entire worship service, with the chairman, Mrs. Bobbie F. Harris, leading the worship. Mrs. Ernestine A. Adams presented the children's message, which is a regular feature of South Tryon's worship and anticipated by all the children. Mrs. Adams spoke to the children on "Obedience." The guest speaker for the service was presented to the congregation by Mrs. Betty F. Als-brooks. The speaker was one of South Tryon's own loyal members, Mrs. Thelma N. McKay, a member of the faculty at West Mecklenburg High School. Her message was a dynamic and fitting tribute to black women, and she chose as her subject, "Black Women of Courage Through the Ages."

Guest choir for the service was the R. W. Johnson Spiritual Choir of Johnson C. Smith University under the direction of Ms. Lavone Coley.

At the close of the service, remarks were made by Mrs. Ann Parker, President of the Women of the Church and by the minister, Rev. A. Rudolph Hendricks.

Immediately following the service, the members of Circle Numbers 5 hosted a fellowship hour for the congregation in the church fellowship hall.

Post To Cover Pillsbury Contest

The Post is happy to report that Robert "Bob" Johnson, who authors the very popular and widely read "What's Happening" column each week, will journey to San Francisco, Calif. to give you an exclusive coverage of the annual Pillsbury Bake-Off Contest.

BOB JOHNSON
...Post Columnist

Bob will accompany Mrs. Sara Polk, who is one of the finalists in the nationally famous contest.

Bob will leave early Saturday morning and return next Wednesday, hopefully, in time to meet the deadline for next week's edition of the Post.
