

Little Rock Stewardess Board To Celebrate Third Anniversary

By Clarence Chisholm
Post Staff Writer

Little Rock AME Zion Church, Rev. W.M. White, pastor is actively involved in a $60,000 building fund drive. The church has and still is soliciting funds from persons, organizations, and friends. Contribute to this worthwhile cause. The building funds will erect new buildings.

Sunday, April 6, at 6 p.m. the Stewardess Board number 2 of Little Rock AME Zion Church, Chairperson Bertha Wrencher, will observe their third anniversary. Rev. James E. McCoy of East Stonewall AME Zion, will be the guest speaker. Rev. McCoy will be accompanied by his choir and congregation. April 13, at 6 p.m. the Amani Uplift of Winston-Salem North Carolina, will present a play at Little Rock AME Zion, entitled, "Everyman," the play was adopted by Dr. Joseph N. Patterson. The admission for this magnificent play is FREE. Mark this date on your calendar.

Little Rock AME Zion has a full month of activities during which the public is invited.

Make sure you continue to read this column so that you may be informed on all the latest activities of the different churches.

The male chorus of St. Mark's United Methodist Church will celebrate their first anniversary at the church, 917 Clanton Road, on Sunday April 13, at 4 p.m. Guest choirs for the program will be: Mt. Carmel Men's Chorus, South Tryon St.; Presbyterian, South To-Soul Gospel Notes of Simpson-Gillespie United Methodist; Senior Choir of Woodland Presbyterian Church, and Salem Baptist Church Choir. The purpose of the program is to benefit the St. Mark's building fund. The Male Chorus is under the direction of Ms. Frances Harris. Rev. John F. Epps is the pastor of St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

The Steward Board of Greater Gethsemane AME Zion Church, 531 Campus Street, is sponsoring a Spaghetti Dinner, April 11 from 5-9 p.m. at the church. The public is invited to partake of this dinner, which will be prepared by N. T. Carleton, chef cook for the Holiday Inn, North Tryon Street and Craighead Road. All you can eat for only $2. Tickets are on sale now, call the office of the church - 375-3900.

A special Easter Card and Lilly were presented to the "Mother of the Year", Mrs. Thelma Hamer of Walls Memorial AME Zion Church.

...Observes Homecoming

The gifts were presented to Mrs. Hamer by Mrs. Richardson from the Budget Committee of the church. This award is given every year to a mother of the church who has shown mother-like qualities toward the church family as a whole. Hats off to Mrs. Thelma Hamer for the coveted honor of "Mother of the Year".

The North Carolina and South Carolina Rally held by Saint Paul Baptist last Sunday was won by the North Carolinians, with the grand total of 231 persons making contributions. The money will be used toward the building fund.

Gethsemane Baptist Church, 1236 South Winnifred Street, is conducting a Church Registration which began last Sunday. All members of the church are urged to register. The registration will include, the filling out of applications of general information. All members old, new and sick. "The sick may phone their application to the church", says Miss Massey, the secretary of the church. There will be transportation provided by the church for those who have transportation problems. The registration is to give an account of the membership of the church. So if you are a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church, Rev. E. E. Dewberry, pastor, contact the church office immediately to give an account of your faith. The registration will continue until April 12 time 6-8 p.m. each night. Saturday, April 12, the church office will be open 12-6 p.m. contact the church office now.

The Second Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the North Carolina Conference Church of God in Christ, will celebrate its 17th annual Spring Conference in High Point, North Carolina at Faith Temple Church of God in Christ, 1230 Franklin Avenue, High Point, North Carolina. All Bishops, Presiding Elders, Departmental Heads, Pastors, Teachers, Educational Directors, Choir members, Musicians, Soloists and people of all ages will meet this week.

The church is governed by a president Bishop and a general board of twelve. The President Bishop J. O. Patterson, is the titular head of the organization, will be on hand for this annual conference. The Second Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of North Carolina Church of God in Christ consist of twenty-four throughout North Carolina and South Carolina, with Bishop J. Howard Sherman Sr., the presiding Bishop. The Key to the City was given to Bishop J. H. Sherman Sr. Monday, by Mayor Paul W. Clapp of High Point.

Friendship Baptist Church will celebrate the fourth annual Homecoming of their new church. "The purpose of homecoming," said Rev. Coleman W. Kerry Jr., pastor, is to celebrate the ground breaking anniversary for this facility. This mark the fourth year Friendship has held services in their new church. For this occasion there will be dinner on the church grounds. Homecoming will be an all-day celebration for Friendship commencing with regular morning worship at 11 o'clock with full choir and service. The congregation and friends will then move to the outside where dinner will be served. The dinner is sponsored by the Friendship Baptist church family. After this glorious feast you will be enlightened by God's words, delivered by Rev. P. D. Barnette, of Washington Baptist Church of Waco, North Carolina along with his choir and members. This special service will be held at 3 p.m. The Youth of the church (Friendship) will present a special presentation at 6 p.m. If you have made plans to attend Friendship Baptist Church on this Sunday you are in for a good old fashion Sunday-of good food-good music, and good preaching. Above all good friends, all of this will equal to a good time in the name of the Lord.

Saint Paul Baptist Church has on sale an album of their church choir. These records are available for the low price of $5. All persons interested in obtaining a copy should call the church office at 334-5309 immediately while there are still some available.

"Not good people trying to be perfect, but bad people trying to do better."

Thought of the week: "Start a good week in a good way, go to church."
