

What's Happening!

By Bob Johnson

Pi Phi and Rho Chapters of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity gave their annual Spring Formal last Friday night at the Civic Center.

The event, which gets larger each year, was one of the best dances given by the fraternity, according to many of the people attending.

John White and the Crusaders furnished the music for this grand occasion. Some of the people caught in the act of enjoying themselves were Austin and Sarah Bellamy, W. G. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culbert, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ezell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leon Chiles, Gussie Floyd, Betty Foster, Barbara Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Winston, Mr. and Mrs. John Steele, Gene "Killer" Blakeney, Mr. and Mrs. James Phifer, Mr. and Mrs. Tennyson Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Zoel Hargraves, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis from Orangeburg, South Carolina, Senator and Mrs. Fred Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Oren McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Richmond, Mr. Noble McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Younge, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Robinson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ardrey, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McGirt, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maxwell.

The Universal Men's Club gave a very nice Tea last Sunday at the Elk's Lodge on Tuckaseegee Road. According to the Co-Presidents Benjamin Belk and James Guillard many people passed through their doors of enjoyment between the hours of 4-11 p.m. Some of the people including club members were: Mr. and Mrs. McClellan, Excel McCullough, James "Slack" Irby, Edward Grier, John McKee, Charlie Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herron, Herman Shepherd, Carl Tate, Curtis Irby, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Means, Jake Davis, James Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trapp, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grier, James Little, Albert Roseboro, John Watts, Lawrence McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Abraham, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pettis, Jean Willis, Mrs. Sarah T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonzo Jones, Ms. Kay Jefferson, Mary Frances Chisholm, Mrs. Jennie Mazyck, Carlton Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Rogers, along with Sam and Irene Hunter.

Some people are really lucky. Deltwan Broome of Route 1 Box 246 celebrated his second birthday last Sunday afternoon. The little lad not only celebrated with a big party, but had three delicious cakes to boot.

Many relatives and friends helped Deltwan enjoy his party: Monroe Washington, Rosetta Washington, Datoya Eubanks, Rosanda Dial, Shanda Alford, Tanya Alford, Tony Robinson, Rusty Robinson, Karen Robinson, Ulysses Washington Jr., Barbara Washington, Lisa Washington, Antoine Washington, Richard Cureton, Reggie Cureton, D'Armon Culp, Darrel Culp, Darius Culp, Darian Culp, Denison Culp, Renee Bell, Stephanie Bell, Lativia Leeper, Susie Beu, Minnie Purdue, Cortez Washington, Carrie Broome, Mary Culp Gazella Broome, Carrie Bell Craig, Martha Broome, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wallace, Merrell Leeper, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Alford, Nella Alford, Jackie Bell, Sandra Broome, Charles Jones, Jo Ann Robinson, Deborah Robinson, Roosevelt Broome, Chiang Washington, Willie Washington, Robert Craig Jr., Ronald and Carolyn Eubanks, Freddie Purdue and Freda Broome the mother and father of young Deltwan.

Many people really jammed hard and long at the popular Blue Morocco Lounge Easter Sunday. The occasion was a real together Tea sponsored by the Viking Men's Club. Thomas Belton, Amanda Adams, Gilda Williams, Isabel Davis, Betty Sigler, Melvin Connor, Mary Lockhart, Gladys McPhearson, Billy Lockhart, Eunice Lowe, Rosie Rice, Evelyn Grice, Connie Caldwell, Leroy Banner, Susie McKnabb, Robert Taylor, Leroy Taylor, George Taylor, Franklin Stinson, Jonas Campbell, Ulysses Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gifford, Mary Lockhart, Billy Lockhart, Joe White, Sheila Mobley, Nathaniel Forte, Ms. Patricia Barnette Switt, Howard Swift, Betty Campbell, Mary McKnight, Rosa Foster, Oarenetter Sowell, George Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bland, were seen having a real funky good time.

Happiness consists in being perfectly satisfied with what we have got and with what we haven't got. Until we rap again - be kind to yourselves and ROCK EASY!

Samesta Hill Entertains Friends At Easter Mixer

Samesta Elaine Hill, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Hill, entertained friends at a "MIXER" on Saturday, March 29, at the Excelsior Club.

The event was held in honor of her house-guest, Eve Lynn Rhue, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Rhue of Conway, South Carolina.

The honoree is the niece of the late Mrs. Evelyn H. Maxwell and she and her parents are former Charlotteans.

The sixteen girls, garbed in fancy pants of their choosing, gathered from 6:00 to 8:30

P.M. for fun, food, games, dancing, jacks, monopoly, and chatter.

"They had a ball", said Samesta's mother Ester Hill, adding, "They ate mounds of potato chips."

In the course of the evening's activities, the teenagers and subteens held a dance contest, with Joyce Brayboy and Toria Burch as judges.

Dannette McLaurin and Bonita Byers won First Place and the $1.00 prize awarded by Samesta's mother.

Hostess Samesta and Karen

Cooper won Second Place for exhibiting their dancing skills.

Attending the Mixer were: Joyce Brayboy, Bonita Byers, Toria Burch, Karen Cooper, Helen Green, Brianna Hunter, Twanna Maxwell, Dannette McLaurin, Monica Morrison, Kimberly Nash, Tammy Roseborough, Alicia Wakefield, Lynn White, Samesta Elaine Hill, Eve Lynn Rhue, and Kimberly Renea Smith.

Miss Rhue's gracious notes. Samesta is a 6 grade student at Piedmont Middle Optional School. She is a student at the Gay Porter Dance Workshop, now in her 4th year, where she made the highest grade on the Royal Academy Exam last year.

Samesta is a 4th year music student of piano teacher Mrs. Blance Oliver and a member of Guss and Dolls, Inc. Last year she appeared in the Ovens Auditorium presentation of "The Nutcracker Suite."

Honoree Eve Lynn Rhue is a 9th grader at Conway Junior High. She loves to swim and was a Life Guard for the city's Park and Recreation Commission last year.

Park Road YWCA To Offer South Seas Luncheon

Samoan chop suey and Polynesian fruit salad will be featured at the South Seas luncheon to be served at the Park Road YWCA, 3420 Park Road, on Thursday, April 10, at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Launio Hoover and Miss Melanie Leota, Charlotteans formerly from Leone, American Samoa, have planned the menu. They also will share recipes and tell of customs of their native region.

Reservations for the luncheon, last in the international series, may be made through Monday, April 7, by calling the Y at 525-5770. Tickets are $3 for Y members, $3.25 for non-members, with proceeds to go to the International YWCA program.
