Industrial Men Stages 16th Annual Spring Dance

The 33-year-old Industria Men's Club held its 16th Bi-Annual Spring Dance last Saturday at Charlotte's Park Center. Approximately 900 of the 1,000 invited guests attended the gala affair and danced to the lively music of the B. S. Plair Band from 8 until 12. Willie A. Walker was Master of Ceremonies for the intermission activities which began with the introduction of "Miss Industrial Men's Club Queen - 1974-75", Rachel Harper; and "Miss Industrial Men's Club Queen - 1973-74", Barbara Armstrong. M. C. Willie Walker introduced club members: James Steele President; Samuel Spears, Vice-President; James Culbreth, Financial Secretary; Johnny Stewart, Corresponding Secretary; Neal Alexander, Chairman of the Social Committee and Chaplain; John W. Lester, Treasurer; Clayton Pride, Sgt-at-Arms; and Edward Hogue.

Two of the nine club members introduced - John W. Lester and Clayton Pride - have been in the club 33 years and are the only original members in the present organization. Mr. Lester was crowned Man of the Year - 1974-75 and Mr. Pride was crowned Man of the Year - 1973-74.

The club's most recent previous social function was the entertaining of their wives and Miss Industrial 1974-75, Rachel Harper, at the Plymouth Ave. home of club member Neal Alexander on January 30, 1975.

Their next function, according to spokesman John Lester, will be their annual "Miss Industrial Dance" at Metro-lina Fairgrounds auditorium about the middle of July.

SEJNCC Church Of God Meeting In High Point

The Second Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the North Carolina Conference Church of God in Christ is holding its annual 17th annual spring conference in High Point, N.C. at the Faith Temple Church of God in Christ this week.

Bishops, Presiding Elders, Departmental Heads, Pastors, teachers, Educational Directors, choir members, musicians, soloists and church members are meeting at the church located at 1230 Franklin Avenue in the Furniture City.

Many outstanding authorities on church activities are sharing the Spring conference which includes workshops, institutes and seminars covering a wide variety of topics "pertinent to the future and expansion of the fastest growing church organization in America."

The theme is "Preach the Word".

Among the highlights of the Spring Conference was "The Musical" on Monday evening when the outstanding recording artists and amateurs participated in a show.

On Tuesday, the Dr. A.J. Hines held a seminar which featured Dr. Bishop W. M. Johnson, the founder and pastor of the True Vine Holiness Church of God, Inc. in Winston-Salem, as the speaker.

Wednesday was Women's Day and Mrs. J. M. McCants lead the seminar which featured Mrs. Deola Wells Johnson, the daughter of the late Bishop Wyoming Wells of Greensboro as the speakers.

Thursday was Education Day and Kelly Alexander Jr. the vice-president of youth and training for the NAACP in North Carolina will speak. The featured speaker was Mrs. Lettie Cohen of Eden, North Carolina. She is a member of the Gospel Light Holiness Church and St. Mariah Holiness Church.

On Friday, the featured speaker will be Bishop D. A. Burton of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who is the General Secretary of the Church of God in Christ.

On Saturday at 1 p.m. the sacrament of the communion and appointments by the Bishop for the year will be held.

The Church of God in Christ was founded in 1895 by Charles Harrison Mason. It has 7,000 pastors, 2 million members and 50 bishops among its ranks. The headquarters are in Memphis, Tenn.
