

What's happening!

By Bob Johnson

COOK OUT FUN.....Saturday August 9 from 5 P.M. til 12 A.M. the tenants of the Kings Park Apartment complex sponsored their annual cook out for all residents and their guests.

Otis Jones, the resident manager, spear-headed this 8th annual outdoor function, which featured music by George Ezell, Greasy Brown and their band, Ann McGill, Earlene Dorsey, Louise Holden, Katherine Massey, Joann Armstrong, Betty McKinney and Joann Jones were grand in their preparation and serving of very delectable food cooked by Richard McKinney, Caldwell Cole, Nelson Howard, and Elbert Lee Holsey, consisting of fish, chicken, hot dogs and potato salad.

There were a multitude of people in attendance at this gala happening. Among them were Jessie Choice, Barbie Harris, Jeannette Lynch, Janice Torrence, "Doc" Foster, Barbara Hunt, Josephine Kearney, Joe and Mary Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ricard, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gainey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mabley, Lisa Smith, Almeda Smith, Leonard Jones, George and Mary Parks, Robert Zeigler, Warren McKissick, Joan Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Banks, Patricia Young, David Parker, Rudy Mockable, Barbara Chisholm, Jerry and Peggy Grier, Brenda West, Debbie Hines, Theresa Anderson, Maria Neal, Charles Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Collins Bryce, Eva McCollum, James "Butch" Coleman, Hezekiah Massey, Wayne Funderburke, Alvin Kinnard, Robert and Martha Parks, Emanuel Richardson, Shelia Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. Abu Kamara and friends. A special thanks is extended to Lewis Mungo for his undying participation over and beyond the call of duty.

JAZZ TIME.....The Astrology Lounge on the corner of Mint and Third Streets is the scene for some fantastic jazz sessions every Sunday night from 10 til 2, featuring some of Charlotte's best musicians. Check it out people, I believe you will agree with me that it's new, needed and now!

REUNION BLAST.....The members of Second Ward High Schools Class of 1959 are probably still beaming after a very prosperous week end of fun and frivolity composed of a cocktail hour and dinner Friday night, a dy-no-mite dance Saturday night, and a family picnic Sunday. Happening was fortunate enough to attend Saturday nights affair that casted the Zequilis in the role of music makers, and they really did it up.

The small ballroom at the Holiday Inn was amassed with folks partying for days, to the popular tunes of today. The guests at this boogie woogie occurrence were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lewers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morrow, Ohie Blackwell and guest, Shirley Wallace and guest, Margaret Lockhart and guest, Nellie Erwin and guest, Hattie Peek and guest, George Milligan, Mrs. Mable Williams, Jim Lowery and guest, Mr. and Mrs. Willie F. Miss Rebecca Marshall Is Bride Of George Caldwell Faith Memorial Baptist Church provided the setting for the 6 p.m. wedding ceremony of Miss Rebecca Marshall and George Evans Caldwell.

Their vows were heard Saturday by Rev. Wilch H. Caldwell Sr., father of the groom and pastor of Faith Memorial Baptist Church. He was assisted by Rev. John G. Whitfield of Gastonia.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hamilton and the foster daughter of Mrs. Cecelia J. Wilson of 2020 St. Paul St.

The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Wilch H. Caldwell Sr. of 1438 Waddell St.

Andrew Cuthbertson performed wedding music for the occasion. The soloist was Mrs. Doris M. Brown.

Given in marriage by James A. Brown, the bride wore a lovely ivory organza gown trimmed in re-embroidered Nottingham lace. The high rise bodice with high banded keyhole neckline was decorated with lace applique motifs as were the cuffed bishop sleeves. Scallops of matching lace encompassed the empire waistline and bordered the neck, enhancing the same effect created by twin bonds of lace encircling the easy skirt.

Adorning the bride's head was a lace camelot cap with a lace bordered cathedral length veil. The bridal bouquet consisted of a prayer book covered with white orchids with yellow lips, lilies of the valley, and a touch of baby breaths. Attached white streamers completed the bouquet.

Mrs. Evelyn Hamilton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an apricot gown with a wedding ring collar. It featured beige lace trim around the sleeves and dress. Her headpiece was of an apricot bow to which net was attached. She carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers.

Mrs. Gisle C. Bryant, sister

MRS. GEORGE EVANS CALDWELL
...The former Miss Rebecca Marshall

of the groom, and Mrs. Phyllis Caldwell, sister-in-law of the groom, served as bridesmaids. They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant.

Wilch H. Caldwell Jr., brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers included Wesley Everett, Moise Williams, cousin of the groom, and John Bryant, brother-in-law of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wilson chose a blue organza dress with rhinestone trim and white accessories. Mrs. Caldwell, mother of the groom, chose a blue and white chiffon with silver accessories.

The bride attended Johnson C. Smith University and Central Piedmont Community College. She is employed by Federal Reserve Bank. The groom attended Kings College and is presently a student at Central Piedmont Community College. He is employed by Wells Fargo Amored Service.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the couples honor at the Excelsior Club. Music was provided by Ms. Rosella Clemmons.

After a wedding trip to the mountains the couple will be at home at 913 Rowan Street Apt. 2.
