This coming Sunday we will be discussing "Growing Closer Together". If there was ever a time when the world was in need of closer relationships it is now. The peoples of the world are tired of war and are hungry for peace. But let us bring it a little closer to home. As an oppressed minority of people the Black race should be searching for ways to draw closer together. As we study our Bibles we find that sin not only separates man from God but sin also separates man from his fellow man.

A strong nation of self-determining Black people can only come from homes that are strong. Blacks will learn how to treat one another in the home. How can we live together peacably as a race when we cannot live peacably as a family. How can we say we have Black pride and want to have power when so many of our men and women take pride in how successfully they can be unfaithful to their wives. How can we reasonably expect to deal with one another on a foundation of trust in the world of politics and business when we can not trust one another with our dearest of possessions our husbands and wives.

Do we expect to grow closer as a race when we pass a brother on the street and exchange the power sign with one another only to find that same brother hitting us in the head for what we have a few blocks later. There will be no Black unity as long as we have so little regard for Black life that we will murder more of our own than the oppressive 'ace. We kill each other over a dollar, a dime, a drink of wine out mostly over unfaithfulness it seems. It does not seem to matter how large or small the subject of disagreement, once our anger is aroused some one is worthy of death. Not only are Blacks killing each others natural bodies but we destroy reputations to get whatever it is that we are after. It does not matter how many Black organizations or churches we are in unless we can see true fruit of racial harmony we dishonor God. Jesus told us that the world would know that we are his by the love we have for one another.

When we can develop this true love for ourselves we will see our people experiences power as never before. Instead of always looking for what someone else can do for us let us see first what we can do for ourselves by getting a right standing with God which Christ has already gotten for us, that we only have to accept. Then we can experience not only divine guidance but divine energy also as we seek full human rights for ourselves but others as well.

Do not be deceived by any political philosophy or ideology. The only way to experience true and lasting racial power is through righteous means. The Bible tells us that righteousness exalts a nation but sin is a reproach to all people. Visit the church of your choice this Sunday for a more detailed discussion on this subject.

University Park An Appreciation Service will be held at the University Park Baptist Church, 2156 Senior Drive Sunday August 17 at 2:30 p.m. in honor of the pastor Dr. James E. Palmer. This the first appreciation service that has been held for the pastor in the three and a half years that he has been serving the church. Dr. Palmer received his B.S. degree from Alabama State University; his B.D. degree from Selma University and his D.D. degree from Birmingham University. Dr. Palmer has taught on both the High School and College level.

Since assuming the pastorate, University Park was the first Black church in Charlotte to have a bus ministry; the church has started an A-1 Kindergarten and daycare center; the predominately white State Baptist Convention rated the Youth Summer program at the church as the best in the entire state; the membership has increased by 300; the budget has increased from $35,000 to $130,000 and presently the church has outgrown its facilities to the extent that expansion plans are on the drawing boards.

The Pastor's Appreciation Day Service will be conducted by the Faith Memorial Baptist Church and their pastor the Rev. Wilch H. Caldwell will deliver the Appreciation Day Sermon. The general public and well-wishers of University Park and Dr. Palmer are cordially invited to attend.

Black Cinderella, Prince Charming Delights Audience

Cinderella and Prince Charming were Black for a change, and they still lived happily ever after. This spectacular occurrence took place this past Sunday at Grier Heights Presbyterian Church, 325 Skyland Avenue. Summer Program Director, Devia Pellum, said they just thought it might be nice to do the famous fairy tale "in color". "Fairy tales are for all kids and the characters shouldn't be seen as having to be white, especially if the audience is black," Ms. Pellum said. Twelve-year-old Janice Tyson may well be on her way to an acting career after her brilliant portrayal of the mistreated Cinderella. Her Prince Charming came all the way from Baltimore, Maryland. This was also the first starring role for 9-year-old Anthony Cunningham.

Prince Charming, Anthony Cunningham has found his lovely Cinderella, who, in reality, is Grier Height's newest celebrity, 12-year-old Janice Tyson.

Ms. Pellum said that a tutorial program that stressed reading, writing, math and spelling was so good that the Learning Development Foundation agreed to fund it

With all of the activities coming up, Ms. Pellum says she's sorry that school will take her away. In two weeks she continues work on her Masters Degree at JUST seminary in Atlanta. She says she hopes to come back to Grier Heights Presbyterian Church again next summer.
