

William Blakeney
...Gets new position

William Blakeney

Named Principal

At Coulwood

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education recently approved the appointments of eight new principals and a new manager of data processing for the school system.

John R. Curry, vice president and manager of applications development for the Cleveland Trust Company in Cleveland, Ohio, is the new data processing manager.

Principals appointed include William M. Blakeney, Coulwood Junior High; Ralph F. Cline, Sterling Elementary; Melvin S. Griffith, Tuckasee; Anthony D. Lingertel, Marie G. Davis Elementary; James S. Murchison, Smith Junior High School; Ms. Betty D. Riddle, University Park Elementary; and Mrs. Ellen C. Wood, Spaug Junior High.

The board also formerly approved the appointment of Irving J. Edelman, director of instructional television, as principal of Wilson Junior High, replacing Woodrow G. Dixon, who recently retired. Edelman's appointment was announced earlier.

All of the principal at Harding High School, Blakeney replaces Griffith at Coulwood. A graduate of South Carolina State with a master's degree from New York University, he has been with CMS since 1961.

A teacher at Irwin Avenue and Williams Junior high schools and assistant principal at Quail Hollow and Randolph junior highs, Blakeney also taught at Shannon Training School in Jefferson, S.C. He was principal and teacher at Finley Junior High in Chester, S.C.
