

Jonesville Hears Lem Long

Lem Long Jr., Vice President of Long and Son Mortuary and Secretary-Treasurer of Church Extension of the A.M.E. Zion Church, was guest speaker at the First Annual Men's Day Program of Jonesville A.M.E. Zion Church, 5727 Providence Road West, last Sunday at 11.

The program was attended by a near capacity crowd of approximately 180 persons who heard Mr. Long speak on the subject of "Man Responding to Responsibilities."

Rev. Clinton L. Wilcox is pastor of the 100-member church congregation that was built in 1896.

Mr. Louie B. Davis was Program Chairman for the occasion and was assisted by Mr. James Stitt.

The September 28th affair raised $960 for the church's General Treasury and was headed by James Mungo, President; John A. Houston, Lem Long Jr.

...AME Zion Church secretary Vice President and Treasurer; and William Smith, Secretary.

The women of Jonesville A.M.E. Zion Church, headed by Mrs. Lottie E. Carothers, will have their day on the 4th Sunday in October, and their speaker will be Mrs. Allie S.

Clark, wife of Presiding Elder Lonnie C. Clark, of the Charlotte District of the Western North Carolina Conference.

Mrs. Mattie Ardrey is Chairwoman of the Woman's Day Program and is assisted by Mrs. Minnie Holloway, Vice-President; Mrs. Eunice E. Davis, Secretary; and Mrs. Daisy Ingram, Treasurer.

Testimonial To Honor Martin

A testimonial dinner for former West Charlotte High School Coach and Athletic Director Jack Martin will be held at the Downtowner East on S. McDowell Street on November 28 and 29.

The two-day celebration will include cocktails, dinners, testimonials and other similar events. For further information call John Love at 392-1036.

Nathaniel Smith Named President Of Honor Society

Nathaniel Baker Smith, III, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Smith Jr. has been recently honored by his peers at Quail Hollow Junior High School where he was elected as the President of the National Junior Honor Society.

The five foot, seven inch, 14-year-old is in the ninth grade and a member of the Executive Board of the

WBTV'S JIM THACKER & DAVID THOMPSON ...Discuss Pro-basketball special

WBTV To Showcase David Thompson Sunday Night

On Sunday October 5, at 8 p.m., David Thompson will step onto a basketball court for the first time as a professional player, and when he does, WBTV will be there live, and so will you. His talents as a pro will be showcased for the first time in a game pitting the Denver Nuggets against the New Orleans Jazz. Channel 3 will bring you all the action and WBTV's Jim Thacker, along with Billy Packer will do play-by-play and color, respectively.

to his years of development at Crest High in Shelby, to his years of national leadership at North Carolina State University. "DAVID THOMPSON-MR. BASKETBALL" will also contain extensive comments by David, interviews with his mom and dad and interviews with many of his coaches and friends.

Jim Thacker of Channel 3 has known David and his family for some time now, so the viewers will probably get to see a different side of Thompson than they're accustomed to seeing. Not only will we see Dave as stellar athlete, we'll also see him as he is off-court, as a person who views his talents with a unique attitude. Join WBTV for "DAVID THOMPSON-MR. BASKETBALL," then stay tuned for the Jazz-Nuggets game. It all begins at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, October 5 at 7:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Prior to the game, at 7:30 p.m., WBTV will present a very special look at the amazing career of David Thompson, the best all around basketball player this area has ever produced. The special broadcast, titled, "DAVID THOMPSON-MR. BASKETBALL," will feature highlights of the three time ALL-American's super career thus far, from his junior high days,

Cuthbertson Scores 3; Mites Rip Winterfield

The galloping ghost of LaSalle Street is on the prowl again. Who is the galloping ghost? He's Kenny Cuthbertson, a 65-pound, 11-year-old who is doing to the local Pop Warner Football League what O. J. Simpson is doing to the NFL this season. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cuthbertson registered three touchdowns Saturday in leading the Plaza Junior "Mighty Mites" to a one-sided 41-0 victory over Winterfield. "He (Cuthbertson) is one of the best I've coached," praise Chuc - Pennington. "However, this was far from being a one man's show," he added, pointing out outstanding play by fullback Gary Phillips, halfback Raymond "Duke" Gassaway and the tremendous defense led by Mark Allen and Jamie Owens.

Pennington also had praise for the blocking of Kenny Hulsey and Jerry Jeringan. "Tim Propst, our quarterback, called an excellent game for us," he concluded. Cuthbertson has now scored 11 touchdowns in only three appearances. He ran for 183 yards with nine carries Saturday, including scoring trips of 60 and 49 yards and a pass interception of 45 yards.

However, according to Pennington, the team's most exciting run of the game was turned in by Gassaway, who broke several tackles enroute to a touchdown from 15 yards away. The undefeated "Mighty Mite," who has yielded only one first down on defense while holding their opponents scoreless, will meet West Derita in Derita Saturday night, starting at 7 o'clock.
