

Bobby Lowery
...New board member
Lowery, Stratford

Appointed To Chamber Board

Minority representation on business group board of directors recently increased with the announcement of two appointments.

Willie Stratford of the communications office at the U. S. Postal Service was elected to the board of directors of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce. Bobby Lowery, president of Better Cleaning Janitor Service, was elected to the board of the Central Charlotte Association.

Stratford was one of nine elected in the December meeting of the board. He took office in January and is anticipating an appointment by board chairman Luther Hodges Jr. to a chamber action council.

A chamber spokesman said the action councils are designed to help the chamber deal with certain problems of the business community.

Lowery said the association is most concerned with the problems of uptown Charlotte. He said the association wants to increase traffic and trade in the uptown area.

Luther Hodges Jr.
...NCNB Board Chairman
NCCJ To Honor

Luther Hodges

Luther H. Hodges Jr. of Charlotte will be honored with the Brotherhood Award of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Chapter, National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The chapter's silver medalion will be presented to Hodges at the NCCJ Brotherhood Dinner here on February 10.

Hodges, 39, is chairman of the board of North Carolina National Bank.

In announcing the selection of Hodges as recipient of the annual award, Mrs. Kitty Huffman, executive director of the local NCCJ chapter, said:

"Mr Hodges has made distinguished contributions to brotherhood in at least three important roles -- banking, education and the upgrading of job opportunities.

"Our board, which made the selection of the honoree, wanted to call the community's attention to Mr. Hodges' outstanding efforts to build better relationships among all people.

"Mr. Hodges, as chairman of North Carolina National Bank, fostered a number of programs for lending to minority businesses and individuals. Included in these programs were extensive counseling and assistance to minority businesses, families and individuals.
