Mayfield Memorial Church

To Celebrate 7th Anniversary

The Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church, organized in March, 1969, will celebrate their 7th anniversary on Sunday, March 21, at 6 p.m. Rev. Leon C. Riddick and the choir and congregation from Mt. Carmel Baptist Church will be special guests with Rev. Riddick delivering the Anniversary Sermon.

The Mayfield Memorial Church extended the call to Rev. H.S. Diggs to become pastor in June, 1969. The church at that time boasted of a membership of 425 persons, and assets totaling $135,000. The church has not affiliated with any county, district, state, or national bodies. Services were held in the Oaklawn Elementary school for 5 years until the energy crisis caused the church to worship on Sundays with little or no heat. A relocation committee was appointed from the Deacon and Trustee Boards, and fortunately facilities were found at 700 Sugar Creek Road West, where the former Sugar Creek Baptist Church was housed. Thus, on the second Sunday evening in January, 1974 the Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church held its first service of worship at 700 Sugar Creek Road West.

As fate would have it, the summer of 1974 found the owners of the Sugar Creek Road property interested in selling the building and Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church was faced with the problem of finding another place in which to hold corporate worship services. With recommendations to the church body to purchase the property coming from the Deacons and Trustees, the church, in August, 1974, by a 3 to 1 margin voted to purchase the property. Finding it necessary to vote again on the purchase of the property, the Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church, on April 20, 1975, by secret ballot overwhelmingly voted 315 to 4 to purchase the property. Hence, the permanent home for the Mayfield Memorial Baptist church became the facilities formerly used by the Sugar Creek Baptist Church. The facilities include 12 rooms on the ground floor now being used as Administrative Suites, Lounges, Ushers and First Aid Room, S.S. & B.T.U. Directors offices, Senior and Junior Missionary's Room, Media Center, 15 rooms and 2 assembly rooms on the basement floor now are being remodeled for Child Care, Kitchen and Fellowship Hall facilities, 27 rooms and 2 assembly rooms on the upper level housing the Educational, Nursery, Audio-Visual, and Finance rooms. There are to be found located in strategic places throughout the main building 13 rest-rooms, 9 water fountains, and a Chapel that seats approximately 500 persons. Also located on the more than 3 1/2 acre tract of land is a 7 room house being used as Young Adult Headquarters, a Hut housing the Boy and Girl Scout Troops, and a parking lot whereon approximately 100 cars can park.

After 7 years of existence as a church organization, the Mayfield Memorial Baptist Family is proud of its accomplishments and affiliations. More than 600 persons have united with the Mayfield Church since its inception and its membership rolls now total more than 1,000 persons. The church now is affiliated with the Mt. Peace Association and all its auxiliaries, Mecklenburg Association, Mecklenburg County Missionary Union, General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and its auxiliaries, Lott Carey, Foreign Missionary Convention, Progressive National Baptist Convention of America, Inc., National Council of Churches of Christ in U.S.A., and the Baptist World Alliance. The assets of the church now total $1,445,000.

With the continued blessings of Jehovah God, and with the continued cooperative leadership and followership of Pastor and people, the Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church will continue to plan the work and work the plan, that the total man might be served.
