Silver Mount Baptist Church Young

Adult Choir To Present Concert

Silver Mount Baptist Church of Pineville, N.C. will present their "Young Adult Musical Choir" in concert on Sunday evening June 6, at 7 p.m.

The 55-Voice Choir, under the capable direction of their minister of music Mrs. Birdie M. Owens, (who recently completed her work for the masters degree in music), promises this to be the biggest and best concert that they have presented since her election to this position 6 years ago.

At the last annual concert there was standing room only as hundreds of whites and blacks filled the church to its capacity.

This year promises an even larger attendance so you are encouraged to come out early and get a good seat.

Rev. William Lee, Jr. is the Pastor of the church--Mrs. Birdie M. Owens, minister of music, Mrs. Arleen Dixon--asst. pianist, Mrs. Gail Feaster, asst. organist--Leroy Holloway, president and Charles Adams-vice president.

The choir has written and set to music two original selections. Copy Rights are now in process for the protection of any future recordings.

ASC Tops Goal For 1976 Campaign

The Arts and Science Council raised $268,316 in the 1976 campaign, the largest amount ever raised in the annual arts drive in Charlotte-Mecklenburg.

With 103 percent of the $261,891 goal, ASC has exceeded the campaign goal for the second consecutive year.

Campaign chairman R. Vincent Sparcklin announced the drive results to the ASC board of directors at a regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

For the second year, Korf Industries and Midrex Corporation gave ten percent of the goal. The increase of $3,818 over their '75 gift was made in the form of a challenge grant to the community to be matched by new corporate gifts. The challenge produced $4,070 in new contributions from 49 companies.

ASC president William H. Williamson III said, "Korf Industries' high level of corporate leadership was a real inspiration to the entire campaign."

Of the ten major campaign divisions, the residential division, headed by Mrs. John W. Harris, was the first to report 100 percent of its goal only three weeks into the drive.

The divisions and their final receipts are special and advance gifts, Robert Knight and Thomas Bethune, $34,598, 91 percent; major firms, Harold Hansen, $146,820, 100 percent; finance and commerce, John D. Hardman, $5,712, 110 percent; general business, Calvin Greear, $12,279, 122 percent; metrolina, Glenda Hanner, $1,904, 73 percent; residential, Mrs. Harris, $27,238, 122 percent; industrial,

James H. Branhart, Jr., $3,775, 105 percent; professional, A. Ward McKeithan, $22,039, 105 percent; retail-wholesale, Maloy Rash, $5,220, 126 percent; service, Jeffrey Huberman, $8,731, 97 percent.

Sparcklin said, "As pleased as we are with the results of the campaign, the need is far greater. The challenge is to improve on what we have done. We need to increase the number of contributors and the level of giving to enable the affiliate organizations to provide programs for more people."

The 13 ASC affiliates which will receive funds from the 1976 campaign are the Afro-American Culture and Service Center, American Guild of Organists, Charlotte Choral Society, Charlotte Nature Museum, Charlotte Opera Association, Charlotte Summer Pops Orchestra, Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, Children's Theatre of Charlotte, Community School of the Arts, Little Theatre of Charlotte, Mint Museum of Art, New Schoolhouse of the Arts and Oratorio Singers of Charlotte.
