"Pastor Appreciation Day"

Rev. & Mrs. Bailey

The Pastor's Aid Club of Seigle Ave Church of God is celebrating our Pastor, W. D. Bailey's 12th Anniversary on July 4, 1976. Our speaker for the 11 o'clock services will be Henry Caldwell, Asst. Pastor of the church. A musical program will be at 3 p.m.

W.A. Bailey was converted and became a member of the Greenville Church of God August, 1947 during a revival by Horace Shepard of Philadelphia, Pa. He served as trustee, deacon, choir member, jr. and jr. hi Sunday school teacher, and a member of the Council Board. He was then called to the ministry in 1952. He served in all of these capacities until 1963 when he was voted in as Pastor of the Greenville Church of God the 3rd Sunday in June 1964. Under his Pastorship we have accomplished so very much. Some of the accomplishments were as follows: the new roofing of the Greenville Church of God, paying off a $900 debt owed on the church, completely remodeling the church with pine putting down a new carpet, buying new pews, a new piano, purchased a new Volkswagon bus and a nine passenger station wagon through the effort of Sis. Maggie Cochran to transport people to Sunday School.

Then in 1972 due to Model Cities Redevelopment we had to find another place to worship. So we purchased a church building on 20th and Seigle Ave, July 13, 1972. After moving to this building we purchased a P.A. System, fifteen more pews, remodeled the outside of the church with brick work and boxed in the church outside, purchased new choir robes for the youth choir, bought a new Pulpit and a new collection table, a mimeograph machine, built a new kitchen, purchased three dinner tables and twenty chairs, installed a new furnace, repaired the roof, purchased a new fifteen passenger Dodge bus painted the bathroom and basement floor and put a new ceiling in the Pastor's study.

In 1975 we purchased new robes for the Adult choir and in April 1976 carpeted the Upstairs sanctuary and painted the Church on the inside, upstairs and downstairs.

In all, there are too many material accomplishments to mention, and we are very proud of them, but most of all we thank God under the leadership of our Pastor we have grown so much spiritually. He is a man of God, an upstanding citizen, a loving husband and father and would be a credit to any congregation. So I say again we thank God for sending us a man like him and we wish him a Happy 12th Anniversary.
