Ms. Jordan Is Goodwill's First Graduate

Goodwill Industries of Charlotte is proud to announce a "first," not only for Charlotte's Goodwill, but for all Goodwills in North Carolina. Ms. Laura Jordan, 32, while in training at Goodwill of Charlotte, and showing much perseverance and determination, met all requirements for receiving a regular high school diploma, as opposed to the Graduate Equivalency Diploma (GED), from the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education.

Ms. Jordan's formal education extended only to the seventh grade. Upon coming to Goodwill, she enrolled in the Adult Basic Education curriculum, and, with instruction and special tutoring by the instructor, Mrs. Betty Harrison (sponsored by Central Piedmont Community College), and other staff of Goodwill, Ms. Jordan passed standard state examinations in each of four different subjects—English, American History, math and science. Ms. Jordan completed the requirements in a period of fifteen months, April, 1975, through June, 1976.

On August 4, at 10 a.m., Ms. Jordan will be honored at a graduation ceremony and reception in the cafeteria of Goodwill Industries, 2122 Freedom Drive.
