Storytelling

Festival Set For

Freedom Park

Storytellers from the Public Library of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County will present a free storytelling festival near the lake in Freedom Park, from 2 until 5 p.m., Saturday, August 21.

Drawing on the talents of all the storytellers, the program will contain folk and fairy tales, modern stories, songs and activities.

In announcing the program, Children's Coordinator Fran Clark said, "The festival is a celebration of the almost-lost folk art of storytelling. We hope parents as well as children will enjoy the afternoon's program."

In case of rain, the program will be held from 2 until 5 p.m., Sunday, August 22.

MRS. WILLIE T. ROBINSON
The former Miss Evelena Mason

Miss Evelena Mason

Weds Willie Robinson

Top cosmetics salespersons Willie T. Robinson and Evelena Mason were married in a special company sponsored ceremony Sunday, August 15, at 4:30 p.m.

The wedding, or merger as may be the case, was performed by Joe Lewis Dudley, president of Dudley Products Company. Dudley, soon to become president of Fuller Products Company also, is head of the company that employs the bride and groom.

Company officials and employees came to the Dudley Beauty Center on North Graham Street from several cities to attend the wedding. Both the bride and the groom have worked for Dudley Products Company for two years. They met on the job.

The former Evelena Mason is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma Mason of 210 Cocks Avenue.

Bridesgroom Willie T. Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Robinson of Mineral Springs.

Top Dudley dealer Narlie J. Crouch gave the bride in marriage. Recorded music was coordinated by Dudley salesman Robert Lewis McCullough.

The bride wore an off-white satin dress, covered with a matching color poi-de-seau. Betty Clawson, manager of the Charlotte Dudley Center, offered the dress for use by the bride.

A bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with a white satin ribbon was carried by the bride.

Mrs. Jean A. Chisholm, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a lemon yellow polyester dress with a green and yellow kimono and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Sherri Domani Clawson, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Clawson, was the flower girl. The young Miss wore a white and green dress.

The ring bearer was Antoine Chisholm, 6, son of Mrs. Jean A. Chisholm. Best man was brother of the groom, George Ray Robinson-also a Dudley dealer. The groom's brothers served as ushers. They are Harold and Danny Robinson.

A blue formal polyester dress was worn by the mother of the bride. She carried a white corsage. The groom's mother wore a white formal polyester dress and carried a yellow corsage.

Following a reception held at the beauty center, the newly married couple prepared to travel to Atlanta. They will reside there as a result of management positions offered both of them by Dudley Products Company.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis Dudley, other guests from Chicago to attend the wedding were Mrs. Mondell Robinson, Betty Sharp, Lou Ann Young and Phyllis Stapler.

VA Reports

Million Widows, 797,000 Children Receiving Pensions

Almost a million widows and 797,000 children of veterans are receiving pensions from the Veterans Administration despite the fact that the death of their husband or parent was not directly related to military service. And even more may be eligible, according to the Veterans Administration.

Children's eligibility is sometimes overlooked by the family, VA believes, when the mother is not eligible because of income, remarriage or divorce prior to the veteran's death.

Eligible for VA pension based on need are widows, widowers and minor children of war veterans who died of non-service-connected causes. The amount of pension is determined by annual income with no payments to surviving spouses, with children, whose annual incomes is in excess of $4,500.

Children's eligibility, however, is independent of the mother when she is not entitled to pension. Application should be made in their behalf to any VA office or to service officers of major veterans organizations.

The possible eligibility of all survivors is reviewed by VA when notification of death is received, but sometimes circumstances surrounding the veteran's death do not always provide information to identify all possible survivors.

There are no income limits on eligibility for survivors benefits for spouses and children when a veteran's death was the result of military service.
