

Weeping Willow Church Names Mrs. Eady "Woman Of The Year"

Mrs. Betty Eady of Weeping Willow AME Zion Church was named "Woman of the Year" at an afternoon program Sunday, September 26.

A total of $2,813.23 was raised by six contestants for the title. Mrs. Eady raised $672; Mrs. Minnie Vaughns, $618; Mrs. Julia Phillips, $585; Mrs. Mamie D. Phillips, $418; Mrs. Myrtle Henderson, $324; Mrs. Esther White, $180.23.

The winner's name will be engraved on a plaque and placed in the front entrance of the church.

Guest speaker for the program was Mrs. Josephine T. Morris, General Secretary of the Bureau of Supplies of the AME Church. Her speech was entitled, "Mission Is". She defined her topic as being evangelism, involvement, social action, investment, outreach and celebration.

Prior to the program, the church observed Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Day. Women of the church led a procession and participated in the 11 a.m. service.

Rev. Vernon Chase of the California Conference of the AME Zion Church was the speaker for the morning service. Chase is presently studying for a Master of Divinity Degree at Hood Theological Seminary in Salisbury.

ANTIOCH

The 90th Anniversary and Homecoming celebrations of Antioch Baptist Church, 232 Skyland Avenue, will be observed Sunday, October 10, at 3 p.m.

Rev. David Carter of First Baptist Church in Kennesaw will conduct the service.

At 7:30 p.m., Rev. W.G. Hall of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Wadesboro, will deliver the opening sermon for Antioch's Annual Fall Revival.

Revival services will continue Monday, October 10 through Friday, October 15, with Dr. J.W. White, pastor of Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church of Asheville, as guest evangelist.

Rev. White was born in Bertie County—the section known as Indian Woods. He attended the Chowhatchee Elementary School, and did three years of high school work at the Bertie Academy. He graduated from Saint Augustine College High School in Raleigh, in 1929. Dr. White graduated from Shaw University with the following degrees: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Divinity, Masters of Divinity, and was honored with Doctor of Divinity in 1955.

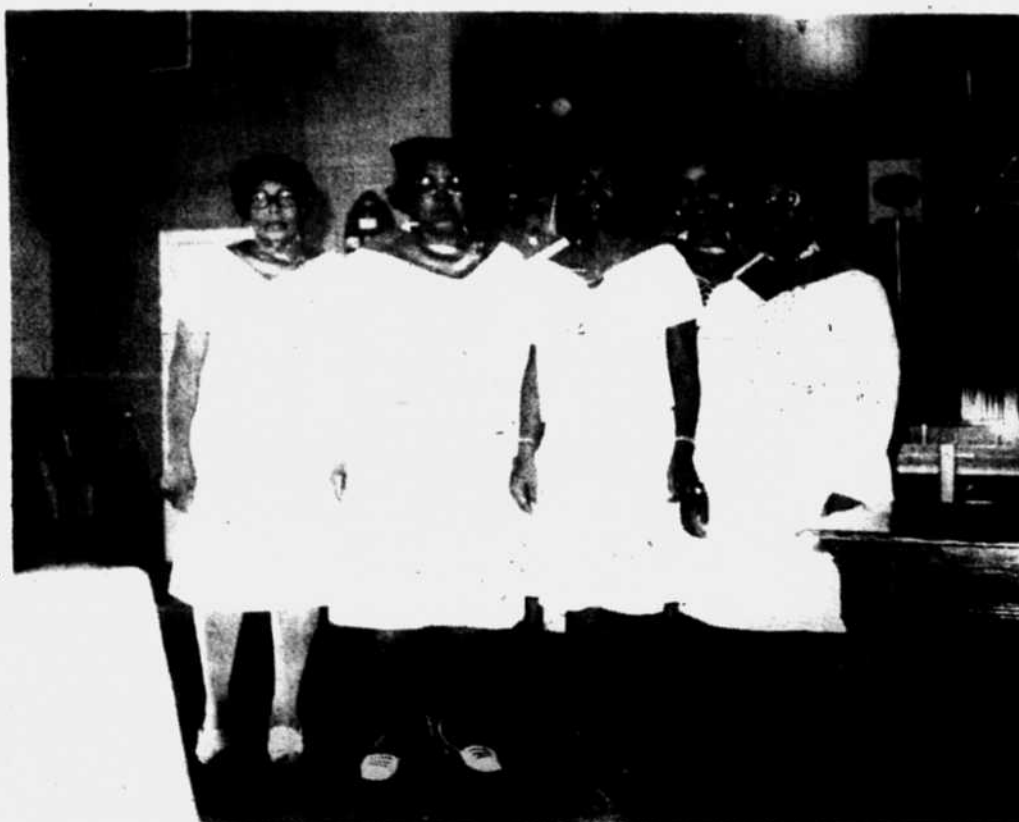

Before leaving Bertie County, Dr. White pastored the Nebo Missionary Baptist Church in North Hampton County, and the Saint Luke and Saint Francis Missionary Baptist churches in Bertie County.

Dr. White served four years as Director of the Baptist Training Union of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, six years as First-Vice-President of the General Baptist State Convention, and five years as President. He served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Shaw University for seven years, and is presently a member of that board of which he has been an active member for 18 years.

Dr. White is now serving as pastor of the historic Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Asheville, North Carolina, where he has done and is still doing a great work. He has served this congregation for twenty-nine years.

He is married to Ethel B. White. They have two sons, John W. White, Jr., and Ralph D. White; one daughter, Mrs. Diane White; and five grandchildren.

Dr. White has held, and still holds numerous offices in so-

MAYFIELD MEMORIAL

The Senior Choir of the Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church will observe its Annual Celebration on Sunday, October 10, at 6 p.m.

The Senior Choir is under the direction of Mrs. Delores Dial. President of the Senior Choir is James Raye, who has served in that capacity since the choir was organized.

The celebration promises to be one of great inspiration as the love of Christ will be told in song.

Miss Barbara Alexander is Minister of Music at Mayfield Memorial, and the Music Department consists of five choirs.

Mayfield Memorial Baptist Church is located at 700 Sugar Creek Road West and is pastored by Dr. H.S. Diggs.

All Friends of Mayfield are invited to share in this event.

STEEL CREEK

Mrs. Milas McClain of Steel Creek Baptist Church won first place in a Bicentennial States Rally, Sunday, September 26.

Members of the church Missionary Society conducted the rally. The master of ceremony for the evening program was Robert Reeves. His mother Katie was credited with the idea of using a states rally as a fund raising project.

An unofficial report pegged the total amount of money raised at $2,445.

Each state representative was asked to raise $100. An extra participant caused the rally to have 51 states. The problem was resolved by allowing the Great Lakes to be represented.

Missionary president Grace Hill said "ladies of the mission were very pleased with the way the members worked to make this program a success."

Church member Fred Heath discussed the topic, "He's A Friend Of Mine."

The young adult guest speaker

ker "gave a moving and soul searching talk from which he drew from and expounded on the 66 books of the Bible using Route 66 as a theme," said a church statement.

Heath, said the statement, has been an orator in the church since childhood.

Second place winner in the rally was Mrs. Jerry Love.

NEW EMMANUEL

Kate Lassiter of Asheboro will be the guest speaker for Laity Day at New Emmanuel Congregational United Church of Christ, Sunday, October 10.

Mrs. Lassiter will speak for the 11 a.m. service. She is the wife of Dr. George A. Jones, a dentist.

Before returning to Asheboro, the speaker headed a social program in New York City. Mrs. Lassiter also served Congregational Christian Churches in the southeast as a field worker.

She finished Peabody Academy of Troy, N.C. and Bricks Junior College of Bricks, N.C. The speaker also earned a master's degree from Columbia University of New York City.

At 2 p.m., the church will host an anniversary program of the Thompson and Thompsonettes Gospel Singers.

Guest groups appearing on program include Southern Sisters of Charlotte, T Cues of Grover, Gospel Echoes of Taylorsville and Rev. Wallace Powell of Oakridge Baptist Church of Greensboro.

NEELY'S GROVE

The Senior Missionary Society of the Neely's Grove AME Zion Church held a very inspirational service on September 26, observing that Fourth Sunday as a Connectional Day by law, which was sponsored by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Department of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Rev. J.W. Holmes, pastor of Neely's Grove graciously permitted the Senior Missionary Society to have charge of the 11:00 services.

The speaker was Mrs. Virginia Williamson, of Charlotte, whose subject was "Take A Second Job". The Neely's Grove Junior Choir rendered selections during the service.
