MT. MORIAH

Sunday, October 24, is Day of Mission at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church of Matthews.

Devotion and expressions of mission will be reflected in the sermon to be given by the Rev. J.C. Robinson, pastor of the church, for the 11 a.m. service.

At 6:30 p.m., a Candle Light Service will be held. The theme for the service is "Is Your Light Shining For Christ." Iola Butler, president of the missionary department, will lead this service.

NEW EMMANUEL

"Children Be Careful" is the theme of a special Halloween service at Belvedere Center of West Trade Street, at 3 p.m. Sunday, October 31.

The program is being sponsored by the Good News of Miracles Outreach of New Emmanuel Congregational United Church of Christ, said outreach founder and president Queen Estell Thompson.

Apples and balloons filled with outreach messages are features of the program. Each child will receive an apple and the balloons will be released over the city to let others know about the work of the outreach program.

Mrs. Thompson said news coverage of the program will include television.

Three ministers will be involved in the program. They are B. Parker, Frank Murphy and Mike Canady.

FAITH MEMORIAL

Missionary Group I of Faith Memorial Baptist Church will render service at 3 p.m. Sunday, November 7.

Guest speaker for this occasion will be the Rev. Daniel O. Hennigan, pastor of Matthews-Merkin United Presbyterian Church. His choir and congregation will also take part in the program, said a statement from the church.

The service is open to the public, said Rev. W.H. Caldwell, pastor of the church.

ZION HOLINESS

Dedicatory services will be held at Zion Church of God Holiness Church, 1605 Luther St., at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, October 31.

Bishop T.P. Burruss will speak at the program.

Music will be rendered by the Young Marrieds of Mt. Zion Church of God of Norfolk, Virginia.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN

Laymen's Sunday Morning Service, October 24, was sponsored by the newly organized First United Presbyterian Men's Council.

Elder Raymond D. Melton presided. The guest speaker, Dr. S.W. Byuam, Chairman of the Division of Social Science at Johnson C. Smith University used "The Indispensable Question" as the subject for his appropriate message. Music was rendered by the Men's Council Chorus under the direction of Paul Reid. Other program participants included: Lonnie Kelly, Charles M. Yongue, Randall Melton and Zoel S. Hargrave, Jr.

A unique part of the program was the minute for mission entitled: "Give Them Their Flowers." Corsages were presented to Mrs. Raymond Melton, Mrs. Preston Hill, Mrs. Walter Halsey and Mrs. Charles Yongue. Mrs. Alphonso Goodwin was absent. These ladies were cited for their unselfish support in assisting the men in their reorganization efforts. A red rose was also presented to each lady who heads a women's church organization.

Rev. Thomas A. Jenkins, Church Moderator, installed the following new officers: Preston Hill, Chairman; Raymond Melton, Co-Chairman and Chairman of the Program

MT. SINAI

Miss Gloria Thompson of Baltimore, Maryland will be the guest organist for the annual concert of The Voices of Mt. Sinai, Sunday, November 21, at 4 p.m.

The Youth Department of the church had their pre-halloween party Tuesday, October 26.

These two events followed the 43rd anniversary of the ushers which was celebrated Sunday, October 24. Their program was a big success, said a statement from the church.

WAVES OF JOY

Mrs. Louise Walker, of 5508 Enslow Place, will be honored in an Appreciation Day Ceremony at the Waves of Joy Church on Sunday, October 31.

The Appreciation Celebration will begin Thursday, October 28. Many religious and social groups have been invited.

ed to participate in the celebration.

The Waves of Joy Church, located at 1206 Pegram Street, was founded in 1969 by Mrs. Walker. The purpose of the church is "to provide a place where religious gospel groups could meet to have their programs."

The approximate 335 members of the church include members of the Waves of Joy Union Organization.

Mrs. Walker, serves as the supervisor. Rev. H. B. McDonald is the pastor of the church. The church's motto is: "Where there is unity there is strength, has been proven to be a true saying. Together we stand, divided we fall is also a true saying."

Mrs. Walker is married to Willie M. Walker and the mother of six children—Willie A. Walker, Joseph H. Walker, Lucellustine Walker, and Beverly Anita Walker, all of

FRED WHITE

HIS ONLY PROMISE IS TO REPRESENT YOU.

Fred White knows that many voters feel government is not responsive to their needs. That's why Fred White's been asked to run for the House. Because people know he'll listen more than he talks. So he can present your thoughts instead of his.

How serious is Fred White about North Carolina's government?

Serious enough to sell his successful businesses. So he won't have any conflicts. So he'll have the time to devote to state government. So he'll have the time to listen to you.

This year, vote for your own interests. Vote for Fred White.
