

Mrs. Kathleen (Kat) Crosby
Outstanding lady
Kat Crosby

Named

Woman Of Year

Mrs. Kathleen (Kat) Crosby has been named WBT Radio's 1976 Woman of the Year. Cullie M. Tarleton, Vice President and General Manager of WBT and WBT-FM, made the announcement today at the annual awards luncheon held at Carmel Country Club.

Mrs. Crosby was nominated by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg League of Women Voters. She was selected by the former Women of the Year who serve as sole judges for the award. Mrs. Crosby becomes WBT's 22nd Woman of the Year.

An Area Superintendent for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System, Mrs. Crosby was recognized for her distinguished contributions as an educator and her special talents in the field of human relations. She was cited particularly for her ability to cope effectively with desegregation and busing at Billingsville School where she was Principal from 1970 to 1976. Her leadership during this difficult time was the focus of a CBS television documentary in May, 1976.

Mrs. Crosby has 20 years experience as a classroom teacher. She was also an In-Service Specialist for Early Childhood Education in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools from 1967 to 1970. She has worked extensively with Head Start programs and has served as an education consultant on the university level.

Mrs. Crosby's community leadership is extensive and varied. She has served on the Community Relations Board, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Charter Commission, the Drug Education Board, and the Board of Johnson C. Smith University. She is also Vice President of the United Community Services Board, a member of Dimensions of Charlotte, and a member of the WBT Radio Black Advisory Board.

Her past honors include the 1974 B'nai B'rith Women's Human Relations Award. In 1975, she was inducted into the Hall of NAACP Fame for Outstanding Distinguished Community Service and Achievement.

Mrs. Crosby is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University. She has an M.S. in Education from Bank Street College in New York. She and her husband, Joseph, live on Druid Circle in Charlotte. They are the parents of a son and a daughter.

WBT's Woman of the Year Award is based on outstanding contributions to the community.
