

Peggy Beckwith
...Receives new honors

Beckwith Named

To SCD Board

Of Directors

Ms. Peggy Beckwith, Executive Director since 1972 and Associate Project Director of the Association for Sickle Cell Disease for Charlotte - Mecklenburg, Inc., was elected 3rd Vice-President of the Board of Directors for the National Association for Sickle Cell Disease, Inc. at the first Board meeting for 1977 which was held from January 14 to January 17 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Ms. Beckwith, who is the National Convenor for Public Relations Committee for 1977 and a nominee for WBT's 1976 Women of the Year, said that the Charlotte - Mecklenburg Sickle Cell Association has the only free standard hemoglobinopathy laboratory in North Carolina for diagnosing sickle hemoglobin. Services in this lab are free and diagnosis are available in 24 hours, Ms. Beckwith said.

St. John Church

To Host

Fashion Flair

A night of fashion flair for the NOW teenager entitled "A Touch Of Class" will be presented by the Personal Development and Fashion Coordination Class on Tuesday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the St. John's Baptist Church (across from Presbyterian Hospital).

The fashion flair, sponsored by the Charlotte Mecklenburg Youth Council, will have music provided by the Charlotte Mecklenburg Youth Council Adult Stage Trio.

The CMYC, which is sponsoring the production as a public service, invites you to come and bring a friend, at no admission charge.

JCSU Receives

HUD Grant

The Minority Biomedical Support Program at Johnson C. Smith University has recently received notification from the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, indicating that the program has been funded for $83,749 for the year 1977, according to Dr. Ruth Snyder, Director of the MBS program.

The specific research problem at Johnson C. Smith University is the therapy of Microsporium infections by antimycotic substances.
