

Strong Delusion - Part 2

By J.M. Little

I weep for you. Some of you have asked me to pray for you. But oh my friend, pray for the discovery of your soul for your time is running out. Soon this age of grace will be over. Christ is coming to take His own out. Will you be taken? I wish I could say something to wake you up. Wake up friend! Look! See the judgment you are under as a lost soul? The wrath of God is hanging over you!

This generation today only wants lies. That's sad but true. Men and women don't want the truth. You have exchanged the truth for a lie and you will be damned unless you repent and turn to Christ. May my Lord have mercy on you, friend, turn your footsteps toward the Lord Jesus Christ who alone can be your salvation. He is your only hope. He is my only hope in such a dark hour as this. It is a dark hour but there is light in the coming of the Lord.

As we told you before, a delusion is something one accepts as true or real but which is untrue and unreal. "And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness" 2 Thess. 2:11,12.

Now that may seem to be a strange Scripture to you. The Scripture says that God shall send them (unbelievers) strong delusion. You didn't know God would send you a delusion did you? Why did God, or why does God send unbelievers strong delusion as stated here? The answer is found in verse 10 of this chapter...because they received not the love of the truth...There you have it, it is the rejection of the truth that makes God send you a delusion. Your refusal to surrender to the truth about your old wicked and depraved condition as told you in the Word of God. Every sinner, before he gets saved comes to acknowledge his utter depravity as laid out in the Word. You will admit to the Lord just how wicked you are and say "amen" to everything the Holy Spirit is pleased to show you as He deals with your heart for salvation.

This generation today has rejected the truth and is determined to go its own way. It's the belief of a lie that leads you away from the truth. There are no words to describe how this generation is deluded by Satan. Today folks don't believe anything from the Lord. The old generation which once held some truths, now has lost what little they had. Church members by the wholesale have denied the Old Testament.

This great delusion that has gripped the world, both religious and secular, had to take place in order to prepare the world for the rule of the Anti-Christ. The apostle Paul said this great falling away would take place (vs. 3). And of my, how the world has fallen away. A great preacher, Billy Graham, was approached. A woman wrote him a letter saying she wanted to know what version he was using because his quotations did not match with her Bible. Mr. Graham answered her saying he used the "Living Bible." And Mr. Graham went on to say it was alright because all versions had the same message. What a tragedy! A great religious leader like that taken up with all those perversions of the Word of God. No wonder this generation is going to Hell.

The apostle Paul under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit saw this day we are living in now. My friends, as a result of rejecting the truth (and that is the truth about your old depraved nature) you, and I mean YOU, will be damned in Hell! Turning the truth down, you take pleasure in sin. God hates sin and if you are ever to be saved you are going to hate sin as God hates it. But the majority of our church members today know nothing about hating sin. Instead you love sin and you dare anyone to say something to you about your sin. Well, my friend, you and your love for sin will go to Hell for all your trouble.

You are deluded thinking God is too good to send you to Hell for your sins. You say, "Oh, God is a merciful God and would not send a soul to Hell." Wait just a minute, God is good and does not in the sense send you to Hell. You send your self to Hell by rejecting the Lord Jesus Christ. Listen rebel, if you go to Hell you go of your own choice. If you get saved, God made the choice for you. Now you hold that. No sinner is saved by his so-called "free will." You have no free will! You are in bondage to Satan and held captive by him. You read the 9th chapter of Romans and see that God has mercy on whom He wills. It is not of him that willeth nor of him that runneth but of God that showeth mercy. That's the Word of God and you will not change it. YOU are going to surrender to Christ or go to Hell! Stop your arguing and trying to tell God how to save you.

God does not have to save anybody! Did you get that?

God does not have to save anybody! Did you get that?

God does not have to save you at all and is under no obligation to save you. He does not have to save you. God is sovereign and does not need you. He'd still be God if He never saved anyone. Now you let that soak in. If you unsaved devils could see that great truth you'd fall on your face crying for mercy.

Four years ago this month when I was coming down for the last time under Holy Spirit Conviction, I know God did not have to save me. I knew I deserved nothing but Hell. It was Christ or Hell. I had pleaded with the Lord that He said only a few would be saved and I cried unto Him: "Lord, a few means more than one but if only one gets saved I want to be that one." And much to my surprise, the Lord saved me. I'm glad the Lord saved me. When He was showing me the Pit on the back side of my heart I knew I was gone. I gave up to go on to Hell where I knew I belonged. All fighting was gone. I was there to be damned if the Lord so chose. I surrendered to go on to Hell. Nothing I had done had helped. When the Lord revealed Himself to me on that Saturday afternoon four years ago I was greatly surprised. I have been telling that story for four years. It has been said that I'm not saved. Well, I just go on and rejoice in the Lord. What the other fellow says about my salvation does not mean a thing to me. An individual spoke up one time, "What if some one calls you a false prophet?" Some one had already said that.

I weep for you who are deluded by Satan. You are blinded by Satan and are being led to Hell. You are in a stupor. Oh, the blindness of the human heart. Turn to the Lord while there is still hope.

Red Cross To Offer Courses

In First Aid

By Deborah Gates
Post Staff Writer

The Greater Carolinas Chapter of the American National Red Cross is offering a four-session course for instructors in Standard First Aid and Personal Safety which began January 25 from 7-10 p.m., and will run through January 27, February 1, and February 3.

The course, which is free with a 50 cents charge for textbook, is being held at the 2425 Park Road Red Cross Center.

Enrollees for the course are required to be at least 17 years of age and must have had current Red Cross certification in Standard or Advanced First Aid.

The four-session course consists of basic skills, mouth to mouth resuscitation, what to do when burned, or in shock, along with basic accident prevention skills (keeping in mind that twice as many accidents occur in the home). Also, treatment for insect bites, and basic skills as making a splint, and carrying patients, will be taught.

To enroll for the free course call 376-1661, ext. 222.

Senior Citizens

To Get Mobile

Grocery Store

Do our "senior citizens" need a grocery store on wheels?

The Mecklenburg County Council on Aging Office is trying to determine the answer to this question, and your opinion is needed.

The proposed mobile grocery store would sell fresh vegetables, meat, canned goods, and staples to senior citizens of Mecklenburg County at regular grocery store prices.

The store would be operated for the elderly who have problems getting to stores to buy their groceries.

Please call the Council on Aging Office at 374-3200 to get additional information about the store and to express your opinion on the need for such a project.
