

WSOC To Colorcast

Muhammad Ali Special

The professional comeback of current World Heavyweight Boxing Champion Muhammad Ali is documented in "Ali the Fighter," a special to be colorcast on Channel Nine Monday, Mar. 28 at 10 p.m. The film focuses on Ali's preparation for his first challenge to win then-defending champ Joe Frazier's crown at

New York's Madison Square Garden several years ago.

The frenzied activity by the scores of people directly involved in the preparations for the heavyweight title fight is shown during the weeks of training prior to the 15-round bout. Ali is in classic style after three years of retirement, cleverly promoting himself and taunting his opponent. With a major challenge before him, Frazier is intensely subdued and sober-faced.

There is a marked contrast when the fight itself takes place and Frazier stalks a sloppy and apparently unenthusiastic Ali. When the lackluster fight is over Frazier has successfully defended his title in a controversial decision victory.

"Ali the Fighter" features comments of actor Burt Lancaster, retired boxer Archie Moore, and a montage of film clips of previous Ali victories over Sonny Liston, George Foreman and Frazier.
