

Morris Field Wins

Two, Lose One Game

The Morris Field Rangers won two and lost one game over the weekend.

Following an 8-3 setback to the raging Hoskins Giants, Herman Thomas's speedy crew lambasted the Charlotte Hawks, 20-5, in a Triple County Semi-Pro Baseball League contest Sunday afternoon and whipped the Statesville Twins, 14-12, Monday afternoon. The three games were played at Harding High School's athletic field.

Hawks Defeat

Chiefs, 12-9

The Charlotte Hawks won one and lost one of two Triple County Semi-Pro Baseball League contests last weekend. Walter "Dub" Cuthbertson's young crew whipped the Charlotte Chiefs Saturday afternoon, 12-9, for their fifth straight triumph. They, however, dropped a decision to the Morris Field Rangers in a benefit contest Sunday afternoon at Harding High School's athletic field.

Toney Godwin, who now has won four and lost one league game, held the Chiefs to five hits while striking out nine and walking only five. He received able support from James Wilks, Sam Dunlap and Roger Peay. Dunlap came through with three singles and two rbi's while Peay was contributing a single and a double and a pair of rbi's and Wilks had runs driven in with a long double.

The Hawks batted around in the seventh inning, produced five tallies to put the game out of reach.

Cuthbertson will send his charges against Bisco in Bisco, N.C. Saturday afternoon with Kelly Carrouthers on the mound. Sunday afternoon will find the Hawks facing the Charlotte Mets in a league outing at the Southside baseball diamond. Thomas Haigler, who is 3-0 on the season will pitch for the Hawks. The Mets won the first meeting, 5-3.

Hawks To Compete In

State Tourney

Walter "Dub" Cuthbertson has had a change of mind.

Last week, the popular manager of the Charlotte Hawks baseball team decided against entering his club in the annual North Carolina State Semi-Pro Invitational Tournament in Lenoir, N.C., beginning July 14.

"At the time, I felt that my players were to inexperienced to compete in the tournament," Cuthbertson said Monday. "However, the tournament officials insisted that it would be a great boost to the tournament to have the Hawks entered, so I changed my mind."

Faoch Davis singled, stole second and raced home on a single by Tim Morris to fuse the assault against the Hawks. Davis broke a two-all deadlock with his marker and the Rangers coasted to their 19th win in 21 games from that point.

Tim Morris, Ricky Summers, Davis, Londell McClary and Rudy Falls each had two hits for the winners. Ken Koontz was the winning hurler.

Charley Houston, Rudy Falls, McClary and Summers led the attack against two Statesville pitchers. Houston poled a single, triple and home run while Falls was hitting three singles, McClark two singles and a double and Summers a home run and a single.

Roger Coleman was the winning pitcher. He received mound help from Ricky Summers. Coleman's record is now 3-0.

The Rangers, who had to cancel their game with the New Lunday Cardinals which was slated for Saturday afternoon, will return to Harding High School's athletic field Sunday afternoon for a league contest with the Charlotte Tigers. Fauch Davis is the likely starting pitcher for the contest which is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m.

Moore Keys

Bums Victory

Over Bisco

Norman Moore pitched and batted the Royal Bums to a 7-4 Triple County Semi-Pro Baseball League victory over the Bisco Chargers.

Bisco took an early lead and held on until the eighth inning, 3-2. The Bums rallied for five big runs when Nate Harris drew a base on balls, Robert Moore stroked a single and John Harris tied the score with a one-base blow that delivered Nate Harris. With two out and the bases full of Bums, James Birtha lined a hard blow to centerfield which Dab Martin dropped for an error that allowed three runners to scamper home. Eugene Polk tripled home the final run of the frame.

In addition to pitching a strong game, Moore lined two doubles. Danny Hinson had two singles and Rudolph Harris a pair of doubles and two rbi's for the winners.

Douglas Grier Captures

Cleveland Tournament

Douglas Grier, a personable young man who hits the golf balls farther and straighter than most golfers, won the Sixth City Open Invitational Golf Tournament in Cleveland, Ohio Monday, July 4.

Playing in a field of more than 200 participants in the amateur division, Grier won first place in the championship flight. He toured the tough Seneca Golf Course in 226 strokes to beat off his nearest challengers by two strokes. The 20-year-old youngster shot a five-over-par 77 last Saturday, an even par 72 Sunday and fell back to a 77 Monday to win one of the most prestigious golf championships available to amateur golfers. For his achievement, Grier has been named the Charlotte Post's "Golfers Of The Week."

The son of Ms. Ethel Grier of 2555 Hemphill Street is a rising senior at South Carolina State College in Orangeburg, S.C. where he is a member of the school's golf team. Grier is also a former standout with the golf team at South Mecklenburg High School.

He has also won the first flight division of a tournament held at the Gallagher Trail Golf Course recently and was second in the overall tournament play with a 72-73 for 145.

Tony Byers Cage School To Open July 17

By Jacquie Levister
Post Staff Writer

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Youth Council (CMYC) has announced its second annual Tony Byers Basketball School. The school will be operating for boys and girls between the ages of 7-18 and who have not completed high school.

The sessions, each of one week duration, are scheduled as follows: July 17-23 (boys), July 24-30 (boys) and July 31-August 6 (girls). The school will be held at St. Patrick's School gymnasium, 1125 Buchanan Street.

The Tony Byers Basketball School is geared to the development of fundamental skills in all phases of the game. The focus of the school will be to teach, in addition to developing techniques in individual and team play, sportsmanship, leadership and proper mental attitudes.

Tony Byers, the director of the program is presently Assistant Coach at Belmont Abbey. He played collegiate basketball in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) at Wake Forest University, where as a junior, during the 1972-73 season he was the second highest scorer, behind David Thompson.

The staff for the clinic will consist of: Cedric Maxwell of UNCC and a recent draftee of the Boston Celtics; Belinda Polk, Basketball and Volleyball Coach at Northwest Junior High; Willie "Scoopie" Joplin a former player for Johnson C. Smith University and the Hazelton Bullets of New York State; and Eddie Payne, Assistant Basketball Coach - Clemson University. Other special guests will include Jerry Schellenberg and Skip Brown, both of Wake Forest University.

The cost of this clinic is $65 per week payable at registration before each session. The fee includes certificates, Tony Byers T-shirts, insurance, trophies, awards, membership with CMYC Physical Fitness-Recreational Programs.
