Better Relations

The Omega Social Club, whose purpose is to promote better relations between young women and to help their fellow man, sponsored a trip to Orlando, Florida, home of Walt Disney World, Saturday, July 16.

Club member Gail Spicer, who had visited this top ranking tourist attraction on her honeymoon in 1974 said, "The attractions have doubled."

According to club president Jackie McCullough, the group, which consisted of club members, relatives and friends, also visited Jacksonville, Daytona Beach, Sea World and Tampa.

Organized in 1974, the club's achievements have been great in making the community a better one. Helping needy families, sponsoring fund raising dinners and disco parties are a few of their many activities.

Other club members are Pat Vinson, Jamie McCleave, Verne Neal, Yolanda Spicer and Blanche Penn.

Relatives and friends who accompanied the members on the trip were Charles Vinson, Fred Spicer, Calvin McCullough, Herbert Spicer Jr., William (Duck) Johnson, Timothy Spicer, Bonita McCleave, Debra McCleave, Rodney Neal, Mitzi Vinson, Kevin Kirkpatrick and Moniece Neal.

Sacred Heart

Expands Its

Evening Program

Sacred Heart College has expanded its evening program to accommodate area individuals wishing training in management, special education, and criminal justice, as well as other traditional collegiate programs.

In addition to courses in accounting, math, psychology, history, English, economics, religion, social work, and management, are courses to prepare teachers of reading and teachers of exceptional children. Most courses are offered one night per week from 6 to 9 p.m. Classes begin August 25th and registration is now open.
