CLUB EVENT...The Les Pierrettes Social and Civic Club of Charlotte is the name used by a group of sophisticated ladies who are constantly doing things for themselves as well as other people. This obviously is part of the reason they've been around so long.

This group of ladies contributed $500 to the Martin Luther King Fund. They have spent evenings at the Pineville Dinner Theatre, and will be traveling to Virginia Beach in early October.

However, in a more recent venture the Les Pierrettes entertained a group of friends in paramount fashion at Jimmy McKee's Excelsior Club, with dinner and games.

The guest list included Doretha Wallace, Iona Jones, Bennie C. Lee, Mattie Burke, Joreatha Isler, Willie Mae McKisick, Henrietta T. Norris, Marie McKinley and Ella Asbury.

The Les Pierrettes is a 27 member organization lead by the charming Dorothy Stinson.

SUPER FUN...The Commodores - Emotions show held at Charlotte's Coliseum recently was one of the best rock shows to appear here in a long time. Both acts really gave the fans more than their money's worth.

After the show, Emotions' Myra Polk, Vickie Owens, and Cheryl Sullivan were able to relax and unwind in the lap of a lot of warm southern hospitality amid the merriment provided by the lovely Pat Foriest.

Pat pulled out all the stops in her efforts to insure that Myra, Vickie and Cheryl enjoyed themselves, which they thoroughly did.

The party was given in the clubhouse of The Difference Apartments, and was laced with all kinds of good food, beverages and music. It started around 11:30 p.m. and continued well into the morning.

Some of the friends attending this illustrious affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moore, John Foriest, Dodie McCall, Preston (Dutch) Sims, Barbara Johnson, Willie Stratford Jr., Jane Bellamy, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Nichols, Sula Henderson, Ted Walker, Charles Owens, Bonnie Phillips, Gloria Tatum, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lee, Gwen McCullough, Carolyn Moragne, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Lewis, Gloria Gilliam, Tom Gaven, Jeanett Stratford, Sondra Simpson, Ervin Moore, Larry Crowder, Arlene Simmons of Chicago, Ill., Jackie Crowder, Charles Mackey, Robert Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Wiley, Sherman Simmons from Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McKinney, Bucky McGraw from Durham, Maurice Crowder, Bob Nichols, Brenda Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gilmore from Winston-Salem, James Massey, Mike Mosley, Robert Owens, Harvey Henderson and of course Myra Polk, Vickie Owens and Cheryl Sullivan those fabulous "Emotions" along with their manager and band members.

SPEARHEAD - HY TYES DANCE...Last Saturday night there was a dance held in the ballroom of The Sheraton Hotel that reeked of pleasure and excitement.

Dressed in white from head to toe, The Spearhead and their sister group the Hy Tyes made sure that their guests' enjoyment came in bunches, like grapes.

The brother-sister type organization emerged five years ago when redevelopment caused a very tight community group to relocate. To keep in touch they decided to form a social club using the two names.

Under the direction of Spearhead President Ernest Jones Jr., and treasurer Harold Jones excellence was the order of the evening. Reality, a musical aggregation out of Gastonia was hired for the musical part of the evening, but club members Virgie Anderson, Harold Jones, and Ernest Jones Jr., also performed for their patrons.

Among the patrons for this evening of pleasure were Dinah Williams, Raymond and Paula Pharr, Mamie Rogers, Wilmer Young, Ernest and Nellie Jones, Alma Miller, Charles Clark, Ida Hunter, Betty Boyd, Leola Black, William Jones, Sarah Wilson, Diane Harrison, Gwen Maxwell, Mary Harris, Richard Jones, Hattie Patton, Ulla Patton, Ann Stevens, Michael Jones, James and Ella Barrett, Ruby Sherrill, Linda Tillman, Sylvia Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burrough, Janie Douglas, Michael Love, James Smith, Vanessa Withers, Lenora Waddell and Geraldine Patton.

Festive Dinner To Honor Michaux, Winters

RALEIGH - H.M. "Mickey" Michaux, Jr., of Durham and John W. Winters of Raleigh will be honored at a festive dinner-dance Saturday, September 10, at the Raleigh Civic Center.

The event is sponsored by the North Carolina Black Democratic Leadership Caucus. The two veteran legislators have resigned seats in the General Assembly to assume major Federal and state appointments.

Michaux is the recently-appointed U.S. Attorney for the Middle District of North Carolina and Winters left his North Carolina Senate seat to assume a post on the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

The dinner is to begin at 8 p.m. Saturday, September 10. Several hundred guests are expected to attend the event, at $20 per person. The dinner-dance is not a fund-raising event, and the $20 charge is expected to cover only the costs of the meal and the entertainment.

Michaux, a native of Durham, is a graduate of North Carolina Central University, where he did graduate work in business administration and economics and earned his juris doctor degree with honors.

He has been a member of the North Carolina Bar since 1966 and was at the time of his appointment as US Attorney, the senior partner of Michaux, Michaux, and Willis P.A.

Trichology Corner

Mr. Charles R.B.

QUESTION:
I would like to get a perm or a relaxer, but one of my friends said that a perm took her hair out? Could that happen?

ANSWER:
To a trained experienced Trichologist or Stylist that sounds like saying, I'm afraid to get a car because cars have wrecks. I won't eat food because food poisoned someone once. I won't get my hair pressed because I heard someone got burned. Cars don't have wrecks, food doesn't poison people. Pressing hair doesn't burn people. When work is given with a perm, if proper tests are taken and if the customers follow the stylist instructions there will be no problems. Sometimes people try to care for their hair themselves, do things to their hair because a friend said they should, or don't keep appointments on time. When the hair is damaged before the perm, try to do it themselves, have other diseases or nerve problems, pull it out, or just won't take care of it. A perm is a good system of hair care. No one can say that customers take care of it as directed. 90 percent of the problems have nothing to do with the perm.
