

CIAA Football Roundup

Winston-Salem State

Rams "Looking Good"

Special To The Post
Winston-Salem continued to look like a poor choice for a CIAA 6th place finish as they demolished Hampton Institute 34-6 in their initial run for the CIAA throne room.

Virginia Union unleashed its scoring power while dominating the sometimes troublesome Fisk 55-0.

Saint Paul's was again the victim of a squeaker, losing to Bowie State 8-6.

The sportswriter who picked Norfolk State first and Livingstone second looked good Saturday as Livingstone lost a heartbreaker 14-13 in the last minutes of the game.

Elizabeth City led North Carolina Central much of the game 6-0, but a couple of miscues led to a 19-6 loss. However, the Vikings clearly demonstrated they are on their way back.

Shaw University had somewhat of an easy victory as Knoxville College forfeited to them 2-0. Knoxville attempted to change the game time from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. after signing a contract to start at 2 p.m. A strange case, considering the fact it was discussed by both coaches face to face a week before.

Whitney Van Cleve had very little luck while a coach in the

UNC-CH To Host

Mid-Atlantic

Clinic On Fitness

CHAPEL HILL - The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will host the 1977 Mid-Atlantic Regional Clinic on Physical Fitness and Sports Oct. 28 - 29.

The clinic, sponsored by the President's Council on Fitness, is held annually for educators, athletes and sports and fitness enthusiasts.

The two-day event will begin at 9 a.m. Friday with a general session in which a panel of speakers will discuss sports and fitness topics. Concurrent clinics on specific sports areas will run through the afternoons.

The Mid-Atlantic region consists of: North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland and Georgia.

Pre-registration or further information may be obtained by writing: Fred Mueller, 314 Woolen Gym, UNC-CH, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514. (919) 933-2022. The clinic fee is $5 for adults and professionals and $3 for students and senior citizens.

CIAA, but returned this week-end with Albany State (GA) to squeeze by Fayetteville State 21-19.

With only two minutes gone in the first quarter, running back Randy Bolton sprinted 23 yards for the score to lead Winston-Salem to a 34-6 victory over Hampton Institute.

Hampton's only score came with 7:39 left in the third quarter on a 14 yard pass play from Russ Seaton to Larry Williams. Derek Brewington, CIAA Rookie of the Week last week, made 4 of 4 extra point attempts and two of two field goals of 24 and 41 yards in the Bears scoring efforts.

Not since 1974 when Tuskegee beat Hampton 55-0, coach Lovette's first year at the helm, has Hampton suffered such a loss.

Virginia Union was penalized 24 times for 259 yards but displayed a strong defense and a high powered offense to wallop Fisk University 55-0.

Union's defense trapped Fisk for 4 safeties and held them to only 2 yards rushing.

Judge Thomas who had his troubles getting on track last week carried the ball 23 times for 86 yards and two touchdowns. Union's strong punting game by Michael Croley who averaged 40.8 yards per kick kept Fisk deep in their own territory allowing Union's defense to dominate.

Fayetteville State, plagued by injuries, suffered a 21-19 loss to Albany State.

Fayetteville jumped off to a fast start picking up a fumble on the Albany's 13 early in the first quarter and turning it into a 6-0 score. In the second quarter Fayetteville scored again on a 13 yard touchdown pass play from Shelton Fisher to Mike Smith and took a 13-0 lead. Following that, Albany scored two touchdowns and lead at the half 14-13.

Bowie State scored with 8:20 left in the first quarter on an errant pass from center by Saint Paul's and a safety in the third quarter to defeat Saint Paul's 8-6.

Saint Paul's score came late in the fourth quarter on a pass play from Sam Cosby to James Woodson. An attempted two point conversion was missed. This is Saint Paul's second loss in as many outings and both were by close margins, 1 and 2 points consecutively.

Trailing by seven with 1:18 left to play, Larue Harrington took the ball in from the one yardline for the score and Tony Holloway hit Ronnie McCoy in the end zone for a two point conversion to give Norfolk State College a 14-13 win over Livingstone.

Both teams were plagued by fumbles with Livingstone losing 3 of 7 and Norfolk losing 3 of 6.

Prior to the 4th quarter Norfolk State could only score on two field goals off the toe of freshman Tony Smiley. Livingstone took the lead in the first quarter on a 1 yard pass from James Jackson to James Hough and lead at halftime 6-3. The score by Norfolk State late in the third quarter tied the game but Livingstone came right back with a 16 yard scoring pass from Jackson to Jessie Long.

Earnest "Warhorse" Williams gained over 100 yards to no avail as Johnson C. Smith lost to Lenoir Rhyne 35-18.

Smith, in their first game of the season, saw their defense break down under the pressure of a Lenoir Rhyne fired up and explosive offensive machine.

HIGH-SCORING CALVIN SEEGARS
...East Mecklenburg's standout

Calvin Seegars Named

Post's "Player Of Week"

By Martin Chisom
Post Staff Writer

When you ask Calvin Seegars about East Mecklenburg's goal for the year he'll quickly answer "to win the conference for Coach Hipps." Ask him about his personal goal and he'll say, "to make the Shrine Bowl Team." *Calvin Seegars, 6'1" 180 pound fullback and linebacker has been chosen "Player of the Week" by The Charlotte Post.

In the first two weeks of play, Seegars has scored six touchdowns and has rushed for 190 yards in two games. Against East's first opponent, Richmond County, Seegars scored four times and last week against Olympic, scored two touchdowns. Seegars also plays linebacker for the

Mutual Black Network To Air 11 Games

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Mutual Black Network will broadcast 11 black college football games this fall according to MBN Vice President and General Manager, Thom McKinney.

The Black College "Game of the Week," featuring, at least two games from the four black college conferences, begins Saturday September 17 at Yankee Stadium with that annual clash between Grambling and Morgan State, and ends with the "Bayou Classic" when Southern and Grambling meet at the Superdome in New Orleans. In the past both these games have been played to a sellout crowd.

This is the second year that CMS To Offer

Driver Education

Evening Classes

A preliminary meeting on evening driver education classes is scheduled September 19, 7 p.m. in the Garinger High School auditorium.

To be eligible for evening driver education classes, a student must be 16 years of age on or before January 31, 1978, but not more than 18 years of age at the time of registration.

The Mutual Black Network has broadcast a national black college football schedule, and it was MBN, who carried the first network black college game in 1973. This game was the "Orange Blossom Classic" from the Orange Bowl in Miami, when Florida A&M met University of Maryland-Eastern Shore.

This years schedule is expected to be carried by 50 stations across the country and will feature the number 1 and number 2 ranked black college teams of 1976, South Carolina and Grambling, five times.

South Carolina State, top ranked a year ago with a 10-1 record will be heard twice October 1, at Lorman, MS against Alcorn State and October 15, at Orangeburg, S.C. against Morgan State, a team it tied for the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in 1976.

Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association champions, Norfolk State, makes its lone appearance October 8, at home against North Carolina A&T. On October 29, Southern intercollegiate Athletic Conference powerhouse, Florida A&M goes against Tuskegee Institute.

A wildcard game has been added to the schedule for November 19, depending on the contention of the teams. At present, Virginia Union vs. Hampton, North Carolina A&T vs. North Carolina Central and Bethune-Cookman vs. Florida A&M are the three games eyed. The Network's choice will be announced at a later date.
