East Stonewall AME Zion Church Will Hear Ms. Rena Blake Here Sunday

By Jeri Harvey
Post Staff Writer

New East Stonewall AME Zion Church will host two special services in celebration of its annual Missionary Day Sunday, September 25. The first service will be at 11 a.m. and will be conducted by the missionaries.

The speaker will be Mrs. Rena Weathers Blake, a member of East Stonewall, and the first local person chosen to speak on Missionary Day. The theme of the program is "Mission Outreach." Proceeds will go to help overseas missions.

A native of Charlotte, Mrs. Blake is the daughter of Mrs. Cornie Weathers and James Weathers, Sr. She is a graduate of Second Ward High and has a degree in English from Livingstone College, Salisbury.

Mrs. Blake's church activities include: church reporter, member of the Pastor's Aid Board and member of Missionary Society No. 1. She is an occasional speaker at other churches in the area.

Mrs. Blake is married to Armeaster Blake and they have two children, Purity, age three, and Armeaster Jr., two years old.

The second service of the day will be at 6 p.m. and will spotlight the Buds of Promise of East Stonewall. These are the youngest missionaries of the church, ranging in age from 3 to 12.

Rev. James McCoy is pastor of East Stonewall, which is located at 1729 Griers Grove Road.
