

Three Colorful Performances

Championship Rodeo Finals

Coming To Charlotte Coliseum

The Southern Championship Rodeo Finals are coming to the Charlotte Coliseum for three colorful performances, October 28-29-30.

You will enjoy specialty acts by some of the best talents on the rodeo circuit. Cowboys and Cowgirls will be competing in these exciting events: Bareback Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Saddle Bronc Riding, Calf Roping, Cowgirl Barrel Racing, Team Roping, Bull Riding and Cowgirls Goat tying - plus A 'wild' Bull Chariot Race.

Only the top 10 competitors in the Southern Rodeo Association are eligible to compete in this rodeo of Rodeos. Cowboys and Cowgirls compete throughout the year in order to qualify for the "Finals."

Two of the Nation's top bullfighting clowns will be selected by the top ten bull riders for their ability to move-in and save the cowboy who may get in trouble when bucked off or when the ride is completed in the bull riding contest. Their antics are also a touch of comedy throughout the rodeo performance.

Over $10,000 in prize money

Hey,Hey,Hey Fat Albert Is The Baddest

Things are not always what they seem, especially on Halloween.

Fat Albert and his pals learn that lesson, among others, as they plot their "creepiest, baddest scariest" spook night ever, on "The Fat Albert Halloween Special," starring Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids, in an animated half-hour program celebrating the holiday of ghosts and goblins on Monday, October 31 at 8 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Devery and Rudy are the ringleaders of the Cosby Kids, including Mushmouth, Dumb Donald, Weird Harold and Fat Albert, and they try to lure the group on a grand adventure to scare all the "weird" elderly people in their neighborhood.

First they try their tricks on cranky Searchlight Johnson, who works in the movie house, and then they turn their talents on Mudfoot, and old man who turns their trick back on them.
