

NBC's Big Event To Take A Closer Look

Burt Reynolds, Orsen Welles, Don Rickles, Chevy Chase, George Burns and Dan Haggerty host a nostalgic look at top variety performers going back to TV's early days in "The Big Event" presentation, "NBC: The First Fifty Years - A Closer Look," Sunday, October 23 at 8:30 p.m. on Channel Nine.

The following segments are included in the two-and-a-half hour special:

Welles introduces a portion of Family Album, how certain stars have grown up on television.

Rickles talks about and shows a sketch from "The Colgate Comedy Hour" starring Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis.

Host Dan Haggerty, star of "The Life and Times of Grizzly Adams," presides over a section devoted to animals.

Host Burt Reynolds presents a tribute to Groucho Marx.

Host George Burns recalls his good friend, the late Jack Benny, and introduces a sketch featuring Benny and Gregory Peck.

A tribute to Elvis Presley is narrated by Orsen Welles.

Jimmy Durante is saluted with clips from his early TV shows.

The special wraps up with the final production number being Frank Sinatra singing "Send in the Clowns."

Trichology Corner

Mr. Charles R.B.

QUESTION:
What do Trichologists mean when they say test or analysis?

ANSWER:
A complete analysis would consist of a dermal scope for abrasure, PH Test for oxygen, Microscope for color - Molecular structuring - stress test for tensile strength. There are other tests, according to what the stylist needs answers for, which would be dictated by the problem. Ask your stylist to do whatever test you need.

Send questions to:
