

Mayoral Candidates To Debate Live On WBTV

By Jacquie Levister
Post Staff Writer

On Monday night, October 31 at 9:30 p.m., WBTV's News Department will air, live, the joint television appearance of mayoral candidates Ken Harris and Jim Whittington.

What previously was reported as an upcoming debate between the two candidates will in actuality not be a debate. The program we have scheduled does not have the format of a debate and is therefore simply a joint appearance," informed News Director Bill Ballard.

The agenda for the thirty minute show will include 2 minute opening statements by each candidate and 60 seconds response time by each to the others opening statement. The remaining 24 minutes will find Mike Cozza and Barry Ahrendt of WBTV asking "questions they, as news reporters, deem pertinent to the campaign," stated Ballard.

"We at WBTV view this program as an excellent opportunity for our viewers to examine the positions of both candidates as they appear side by side," Ballard offered.

"We shall continue to thoroughly cover the council race on our regular news programming," he concluded.

This program, being produced by the News Department of WBTV, will be one of a continuous line of news broadcasts the station produces.

Monday night, October 31, 9:30 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3. Tune them in!

Fashion Notes The Man

Brought To You By DOMER REEVES

Want to up-date that old suit? ... It's as simple as buying a contrasting vest ... It will give you a vested interest you never knew you had.

Looking for an over-the-calf sock that stays put? ... These made of nylon stretch with your every move and yet won't sag or wrinkle.

There is nothing softer ... nothing smarter ... nothing more IN ... than the velour sport shirt ... Styled with collar and front-buttoned closure, it can go everywhere your casual-minded heart desires.

For casual wear ... the traditional button-front all-wool sweater beats anything for indoor or outdoor wear ... With one like this, you can forget a jacket on all but the chilliest fall days.

Remember, only fashion can give you REAL social security.

The weather is turning cold and we're ready with ski jackets, heavy coats, fleece lined jackets with hoods, top coats, and Sweater coats for the big and tall man.
