The Third annual Metrolina Trade Fair ends today at the Charlotte Civic Center. Nearly 200 purchasing agents and vendors from across the nation are participating in the two-day event. The Fair, a brainchild of the Metrolina Minority Purchasing Council, seeks to promote minority economic development through contacts between area firms and minority companies that have products or services sell.

All-American Credric Maxwell, UNC-Charlotte's all-time leading scorer and rebounder, and now a Boston Celtic, was placed in the starting line-up last week replacing the aging team captain John Havlicek.

Maxwell has played in six of the Celtics first nine games. Within an average playing time of 7.7 minutes, Maxwell has averaged 6.5 points per game, grabbed 18 rebounds and blocked three shots. He was the Celtics' first-round draft pick for the current season.

Three Musketeers Premiere Friday

"The Three Musketeers," director Richard Lester's grand, rollicking adventure film, based upon Alexander Dumas' classic tale, will have its world television premiere as a special movie presentation on Friday, November 18, at 9 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

The film stars Oliver Reed, Raquel Welch, Richard Chamberlain, Michael York, Fay Dunaway and Charlton Heston. Also featured in the cast are Frank Finlay, Geraldine Chaplin, Christopher Lee, Simon Ward, Jean Pierce Cassel and Spike Mulligan.

Against the background of 17th-century France, the Three Musketeers—Athos (Reed), Aramis (Chamberlain) and Porthos (Finlay)—serve King Louis XIII (Cassel) with the help of their new friend, the dashing D'Artagnan (York).

Lovers of adventure and intrigue, and loyal to their king, the Three Musketeers must save the royal family for a plot being hatched by the wily cleric, Cardinal Richelieu (Heston), and his spy, Milady (Miss Dunaway).

Queen Anne (Miss Chaplin) gives her diamond mecklace to the British Prime Minister, Buckingham (Ward), as a token of her love for him. The kind knows nothing of this, so the cardinal convinces him to ask his queen to wear the necklace at the royal ball.

It is up to the Three Musketeers and D'Artagnan to recover the necklace from Buckingham and return it to the queen before the embarrassing situation will be revealed at the ball.

Carolina Classic Pairings Announced

A drawing has been held for the team pairings for the WBTV Carolina Classic, to be held December 8, 9 and 10 at Wheeler Center on the Belmont Abbey campus.

The afternoon session (Session No. 1) will lead-off at 2 p.m. Thursday, December 8th with Livingston versus Gardner Webb. At 4 p.m., Pfeiffer will meet Catawba.

Special Guest Star

Jennifer Warren guest stars as Carol Austin, the wife of a top mobster who kills her husband, then tries to use her feminine charms to distract both Kojak and Crocker, but is unable to fool her father-in-law, played by special guest star Sam Jaffe, on "Kojak," Sunday, November 20 at 10 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

To everyone's surprise, Kojak turns the case over to Crocker, then the young officer learns his superior had a previous relationship with Carol and he seems to be falling into the same trap.

The night session (Session No. 2) will begin at 7 p.m. with Barber-Scotia battling Belmont Abbey, followed by Johnson C. Smith and Lenoir Rhyne.

There will be four games on Friday, December 9th, the loser playing at 2 and 4 p.m. (session No. 3); the winners at 7 and 9 p.m., (Session No. 4).

On Saturday, December 10th, the 3rd and 4th place teams will meet at 11 a.m. The Championship game, which will be televised on WBTV, Channel 3, will begin at 1 p.m., (Session No. 5).

QUESTION:
Do most people have proper hair?
ANSWER:
No! Because most people do not put hair care and personal services into their budget; leaving everything to chance and when they feel like it. People may rush into a salon, try to undo six months damage on hit and miss treatments in one day. The proper and less expensive way in the long run; is to get your car properly designed and follow your treatments on a regular basis.
