By Cynthia Bell
Post Staff Writer

The Third Annual Police ball was held recently at the Charlotte Civic Center. The ball was sponsored by the Charlotte Chapter of the North State Law Enforcement Association. This association includes anyone in the criminal justice system in the Charlotte area.

The Charlotte chapter was formed in 1970 and is fairly new whereas the state Association was founded 25 years ago in Durham, North Carolina.

There are 35 members presently in the Charlotte Chapter according to president Tracy Barrett. Effective leadership of The North State Law Enforcement Association is projected through its hard working officers and members. President Barrett is assisted by Wesley Everett, Vice President; Leo Johnson, Secretary; W.A. McCullough, Financial Secretary; and Curby Swiddel, Treasurer.

This year's ball was planned by the Program Committee with James Whitesize as Chairperson. Other members of the association who assisted with planning the ball were W. Caldwell, Frank Coley, Francis Dixon, James Hooper, Alphonso Green, and A.D. Crockett. The program committee gave away fabulous door prizes at the ball. First prize was a 19" color television set, $100 cash was second, and $50 was third place. Charles Dannelly, a candidate for the Charlotte City Council District No. 2 seat was present and gave remarks. Human Bood from Winston-Salem, North Carolina provided the musical entertainment.

Other Committees of the Charlotte Chapter of the North State Law Enforcement Association are the Wages and Means and Program Committee which is a consolidation of the Wages and Means Committee and the Program Committee. This consolidated committee handles social functions and discover new ways of raising money. The membership Committee investigates new applicants and tries to recruit new members. The Courtesy Committee welcomes visitors and sends flowers to members to cheer them in times of sickness or death. The Liaison Committee

Two Sorors Awarded Plaques

At Founder's Day Celebration

Last week-end was indeed a most joyful and memorable time when two sorors were awarded plaques at the Founders Day Celebration of the Beta Omicron Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. The presentation was made at a dinner during the first part of the celebration which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Conner of 1615 Oaklawn Avenue.

The dinner was preceded by a brief business meeting which was opened with a reading, "Understanding" by Mrs. Geraldine Taylor, followed by the history of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority and Beta Omicron Sigma Chapter by Ms. Jo Ann Sheff. A very impressive and inspirational prayer was then led by Mrs. Mattie Green.

The first plaque was awarded to Mrs. Mattie Green, who once served as Historian and Parliamentarian in the sorority, but presently serves as chairperson of the Community Service Committee. She was awarded by Mrs. Smot for her great group leadership and outstanding community service.

The second plaque was awarded to Mrs. Lavenia Young by Mrs. Mary S. McKinnon (presider of the meeting), for 25 years of loyal and dedicated service. Mrs. Young first joined the Sorority during the 1952-53 sorority year, and has been actively involved since that time. She has served as president, secretary and chairperson of the program committee and has served in many other capacities of the Sorority.

During the time she was president she initiated the sorority in becoming a life member for the NAACP. This year the Sorority received its Life Membership Plaque as Mrs. Young was being honored.
