

A.D. Neal
Funeral director
Neal Receives

Director's

License

Albert D. Neal, 1805 Patton Avenue, Charlotte, received his funeral director's license through a correspondence course in Mortuary Science with the North Carolina State Board of Mortuary Science in Raleigh.

Mr. Neal did his apprenticeship under the supervision of Louie B. Davis, general manager of Long and Son Mortuary Service. A graduate of West Charlotte, Mr. Neal also attended Carver College as an honor student majoring in Business Administration. He is owner and operator of Neal's Barber Shop where he has been self-employed for the past 42 years.

He has always wanted to become a funeral director from the very moment that he was employed by Long and Son Mortuary. Through his employment he was highly inspired by the staff to pursue a corresponding course in Mortuary Science.

He has already become active by obtaining a membership in the Western District of Funeral Directors and is seeking membership with the National Funeral Directors and Mortician Association.

Mr. Neal is an active member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church of the city, Coleman W. Kerry Jr., Pastor.

Washington

Heights Garden

Club Meeting

The home of Mrs. Cora Gaither was the site for the Washington Heights Garden Club regular meeting which was held Tuesday, Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

With Mrs. Lois Scott, president of the club presiding, the meeting opened with the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Essie Stovell, chaplain then led the members in prayer. By everyone being in the Christmas spirit, they collected money for the Christmas party and made plans to receive new members the first of the year. The club also had a visitor, Mrs. Marie Barten. With all business taken care of, the hostess served a lovely repass.

Members present at the meeting were Mrs. Maude Small, Mrs. Lillie Carter, Mrs. Nancy English, Mrs. Ethel Choate, Mrs. Viola Allison, Mrs. Lillian Jordan, Mrs. Essie Stovell, Mrs. Jessie Hamlen, Mrs. Cora Gaither, Mrs. Gertrude Williams, Mrs. Willette Patterson, Mrs. Jannie Pride and Mrs. Carrie Pitts.
