...Black Enterprise Founder

Earl Graves

Elected IIT

Director

NEW YORK, N.Y. December 19, - Election of Earl G. Graves, publisher of Black Enterprise Magazine, to the board of directors of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, was announced today by Harold S. Geneen, chairman and chief executive.

In addition to publishing, Mr. Graves is president of radio station KNOX AM and FM in Dallas, Texas, and also heads his own marketing research company. He founded Black Enterprise Magazine, a national monthly magazine specializing on issues affecting economic conditions and business development for blacks, in 1970. Previously he had been president of his own management consultant firm.

Prior to launching his own businesses, he was administrative assistant to the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy where his primary efforts were in setting up pilot urban development programs throughout New York State. Named one of the ten most outstanding minority businessmen in the country by the President in 1972, Mr. Graves has been similarly recognized by Ebony Magazine as one of the 100 most influential black leaders in America, and by Time Magazine as one of 200 future leaders of the country. He was the recipient of the Silver Beaver Award, scouting's highest recognition for volunteer work, and of honorary doctor of law degrees from several colleges and universities, including his alma mater Morgan State College where he received a B.A. degree in Economics in 1958.

Mr. Graves serves on the boards of Tuskegee Institute; the Corporate Fund for the Performing Arts at Kennedy Center; the Advertising Council; the Magazine Publishers Association; and numerous others.

He is a member of the advisory council of the University of Notre Dame Center for Civil Rights, and a trustee of the American Museum of Natural History and Planetarium Authority, and is Commissioner of Scouting for the Greater New York Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Graves served as a captain in the U.S. Army from 1958 to 1960. He is married to the former Barbara Kydd and has three sons: Earl, John Clifford and Michael.
