

Summer Driver Education

Classes Begin June 12

Summer driver education classes will begin on June 12. There will be only one session of classroom work which consists of 30 hours; classes will meet two hours daily, Monday through Friday, 4-6 p.m. After the first week, classes will be scheduled in the morning. Birth certificates are required at the first class.

All classroom work will be completed by June 30. Classes will be held at all senior high schools.

In addition to these classes, there will be afternoon classes at Garinger and Harding High Schools from June 26-July 17, 1:15-3:15 p.m. daily. Students must be enrolled in regular summer school to attend this class.

Behind-the-wheel instruction will be scheduled on an individual basis after successful completion of classroom work. Students will be scheduled for and are required to attend a 12-hour range phase and three hours on-the-road instruction. There may be several days lapse between the ending of one phase and the beginning of the next phase. The range phase is counted as one-half of the behind-the-wheel instruction. It takes nine days to complete behind-the-wheel instruction.

Sinusitis

What It Is And Isn't

"I've got sinus trouble" is a common complaint used by patients to summarize nasal obstruction difficulties. However, Herbert C. Jones, MD, an Atlanta otolaryngologist, says that "acute sinusitis is not a frequently seen clinical entity," pointing out that the majority of patients with nasal problems do not have sinusitis.

Examining the myths, misconceptions and misdiagnoses of sinusitis in the May issue of Urban Health, Dr. Jones' article, "Sinusitis—What It Is and Isn't," explains that "to some patients, sinus trouble may mean nasal obstruction."

Urban Health, now in its seventh year of publication, reaches over 24,000 health professionals and covers contemporary issues in urban health care delivery and clinical subjects. The journal is published in Atlanta, Ga.

For School-Age Children Children's Home Society

Seeking Adoptive Homes

The Children's Home Society is actively seeking permanent adoptive homes for school-age children. The Society will hold meetings for people interested in adoption on Monday, June 12 in Charlotte at the United Community Services Auditorium, 301 S. Brevard Street. Meetings will take place at 12:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

A meeting will be held in Salisbury on Tuesday, June 13, 7:30 p.m., in the Ellis Room of Home Savings and Loan on West Innes.

The Children's Home Society and Cleveland County Department of Social Services will co-sponsor meetings in Shelby on Thursday, June 15, 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the Malcolm Brown Auditorium at Shelby High School.

Adoptive parents will be present at these meetings to share their experiences in adoption and to answer any questions. Staff members will show pictures of some of the children who are waiting for homes.

Agency representatives are looking for mature adults who will be committed parents for a school-age child. People interested in adoption may be married or they may be single. A steady income is important, but there are no set requirements on the amount of income. Mothers may continue to work after a child is placed in the home. A love of children and a commitment to parenthood are the most important qualifications for the adoptive parent of a school-age child.

People interested in adopting a younger child or a baby may write The Children's Home Society, P.O. Box 6587 Greensboro, N.C. 27405.

Julia's Landlady

Julia's landlady raises her rent and when Julia complains to Maria that her salary can't stand the increase, she discovers Maria's weekly income is greater than hers, in "On Our Own," Sunday, June 4, at 8:30 p.m. on WBTB, Channel 3.

It's bad enough there's a difference in wages, but Maria, on Julia's behalf, goes to Toni McBain and quits for her.

Pfeiffer Bids For Live-In High School Students

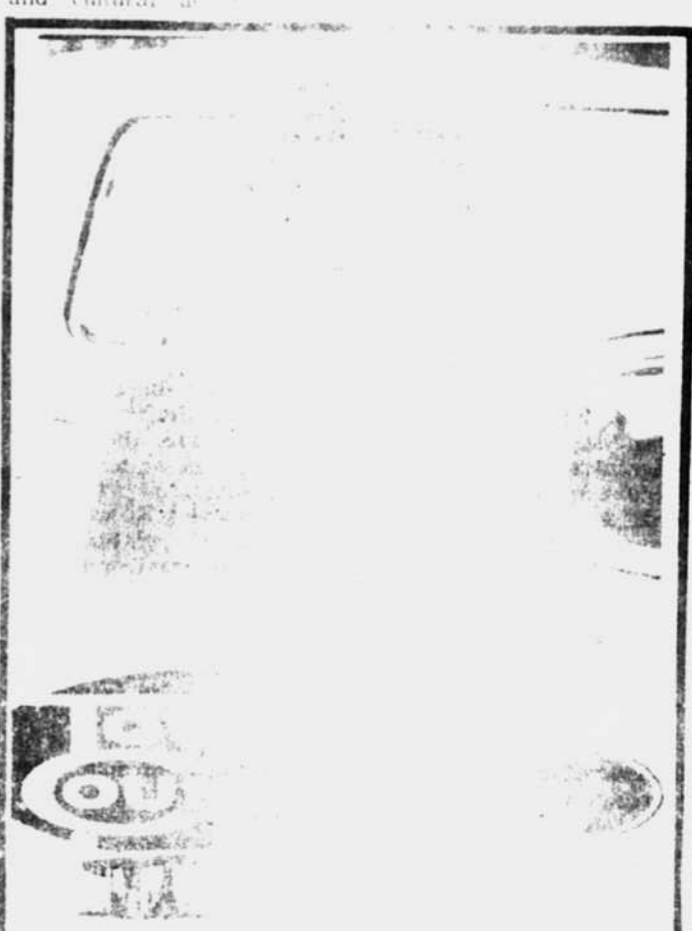

(MISENHEIMER) — The campus of Pfeiffer College is high on the list of locations being considered by the Governor's Office for locating a live-in high school for young gifted North Carolinians.

The Pfeiffer Administration has not only offered available land for the school, but Pfeiffer President Dr. Douglas Reid Sasser has even suggested the possibility of converting an existing building on campus into classroom facilities adequate to house the expected 750-900 students who would eventually be enrolled.

"The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees has approved the pursuit of this matter," Sasser said. "And, we do have the perfect location. Pfeiffer is the most centrally located senior college in North Carolina. As such, it would prove easily accessible from all parts of the state in all directions."

"What we're talking about is some very young students, students who will be away from home, many of them, for the first time and who's parents might well find comfort and security in our rural setting and our well-mannered student body," Sasser said.

Sasser said the college's total academic campus is 31 miles from the city of Charlotte, a short drive from the city of Salisbury. The college is located on a 1,000-acre campus with a marble and cultural center, a 32-acre
