Torrence -

Williams Family

Hold Reunion

The weekend of August 4, family members and guests enjoyed the fellowship of togetherness.

The weekend began with a Banquet & Dance at the Omega Fraternity House. On the program for the banquet was Rev. C. W. Kerry, pastor, Friendship Baptist Church who gave the invocation, Mrs. Mary Alice Roebuck, solist and family member from Philadelphia, Pa.

Ms. Jocie Hudley, solist, accompanied by Tony Brown elegantly entertained the guests during the dinner hour. Rudy Torrence served as Master of Ceremonies. More than 70 guests and family members danced to the Disco music of Freddie Hemphill.

Saturday, a cook out was held at the spacious estate of Mary & Chauncy Jones, Lakeview Road. Family members and friends had a golden opportunity to get to know each other better. Elaborate conversation and interaction among family members were in evidence as they searched back into their roots and authenticated their kinship.

Believing that the family who prays together stays together the family members and friends witnessed an impressive and spiritual service Sunday at the Friendship Baptist Church. Guest solist was Mrs. Mary Alice Roebuck.

Family members and friends traveled from New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina to participate in the gala affair.
