

Bob Johnson

What's happening!

CONVENTION TIME...Rameses Temple No. 51 (AEAONM), Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, spent a week in Kansas City, Missouri, during the Shriners annual Imperial Council recently.

While there, the group participated in a golf tournament, a bowling tournament, annual business sessions conducted daily and planned tours. They even caught some Kansas City Royals' baseball games.

All of these activities made for an exciting week for the brothers of RAMESES TEMPLE NO. 51.

Bob Johnson

The illustrious Potentate - Bill F. Lowe and wife Juanita, Commandress of the Daughter of Isis, (an auxiliary to the Shriners). Past Potentate Julius Watson, Walter Kennedy, Eugene Blakeney and family, Mr. and Mrs. John "Sonny" Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Young, Charles Hill, Walter P. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Guthrie, L. Willie Weaver, David Garris, Walter Lewis, Harry Sloan and John Harrison were among the Rameses Temple No. 51 participants.

ANNIVERSARY DANCE...The Spearhead Social Club will sponsor their 5th anniversary dance, Sept. 2, at the Sheraton Inn.

According to Ernest Jones Jr., the untiring input of members Harold Jones, Moses Eggleston, John Hamilton, James Ballard, Ben Murphy, Thomas Whitley, Gene Waddell, Robert Gilbert, Pete Nesbit, Charles Clifford and himself, will probably make this the most fantastic gig to date for THE SPEARHEAD SOCIAL CLUB.

WEDDING FUN...The very lovely Delmarcia Denise Jenkins and Norman Alexander Mitchell were united in marriage at 6:30 p.m. last Saturday at First Nazareth Baptist Church in a very radiant ceremony. The Rev. Dr. W. H. Neal of Columbia and the Rev. Dr. A. R. Hendrick of South Tryon St. Presbyterian Church officiated.

Following the ceremony, a dynamic reception was held at the Fountain Bleau Inn on Farrow Rd. and most of the guests gathered at the Jenkins spacious home for a late party. There the bride and groom were able to relax and really get to enjoy friends and relatives in attendance.

Some of the many people that participated in this weekend of endearing merrymaking were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Reed, Sylvia Jenkins, Karen McAdoo, Carolyn Davis, Robynn Pearson, Patricia Jones, Renee Brown, Walter Jones, William Brooks, De Marcia Adams, Al McCain, Minnie Pride, Valda Cornelius, Sandy Dandy, Vivian Brown, Dorothy Ball, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. "Chuck" Fields and little Chucky from Columbia, S.C., Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mitchell, Richard Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coutourier, William Hill, Wayne Carrothers, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDonald, Leon Carrothers, Jeff Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reid, Anthony Carrothers and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Funderburke from Charlotte, N.C.

DENISE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Syvester Jenkins of Columbia. She graduated from Boylan-Haven-Mather Academy and attended the University of S.C. and Midlands TEC. She is employed by the Medical Personnel Pool.

Mitchell is the son of Mrs. Ruby M. Mitchell of Charlotte and the late Granerson A. Mitchell. He graduated from York Road High School and attended Johnson C. Smith University. He is employed by the United States Postal Service and is administrative vice-president for the Mail Handlers Local No. 305 of the Labors International Union of the North American AFL-CIO.

After a wedding trip to Sea Pines Resort on Hilton Head Island, the couple will make their home here.

TENNIS PARTY...The BATCH Traveling All-Stars hosted a party for participants during the 1st annual Southeastern Racquet Association Conference Tournament held last weekend at Howard Johnson on Wilkinson Blvd.

Seen boogeying and enjoying the chips, dips, sips and overall fellowship with the guests from Richmond, Raleigh, Gastonia and Winston-Salem were Eric Berry, Drew Berry, Alan Blackwell, June Brown, Tommy Burch, Toria Burch, Bobby Cannon, James Cuthbertson, Carol Duncan, Briana Hunter, Ann Hunter, Sophia Taylor and Eureatha Taylor.

Others attending were Cina Mack, Nancy Crisp, Pancho Mack, Sonya Lee, Leticia McCowen, Renee McCowen, Derrick Milligan, Doodie Murphy, Brian Murphy, John Murphy, Goldwyn Parker, Cynthia Parker, Tony White, Ron Johnson, Dot McCowen and Henry McCowen.

HAPPINESS...Happiness is a sunbeam which may pass through a thousand bosoms without losing a particle of its original ray; but, when it strikes on a kindred heart, like the converged light on a mirror, it reflects itself with doubled brightness - It is not perfect till it is shared.

MRS. BARRY RIVERS
...She was Miss Lexie Brown

In Huntersville Brown-Rivers

Vows Spoken

Wedding vows for Lexie Brown and Barry Rivers were spoken Saturday, August 19, at 4 p.m. in the afternoon at St. Phillips Baptist Church Huntersville, with Rev. Carol Campbell officiating.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Barbara A. Harris and Mrs. Odell Graham.

The bride chose a formal length gown of white lace over champagne. Her veil cascaded from a headpiece decorated with lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of ivory flowers with hints of baby's breath and greenery.

Her honor attendant, Ms. Patricia D. Berry, wore a street length dress of swiss pink and carried a single mum.

Ms. Diane Kelly, Michelle Sharon Tyson, each wore dresses similar to the honor attendant in dolphin rose and also carried a single mum.

Leslie Ann Brown was the junior bridesmaid. Master Richard Love was the ring bearer and little Kim Johnson was the flower girl. The best man was Howard Sharmon. Ushers were Ronald Tillman, Ivan Brown and Larry Sprines.

The mother of the bride and groom wore gowns in the colors of blue and pink. Each were accented with a pearl covered bodice and wore white rose corsages.

A reception in the couple's honor was held at the home of the bride in Huntersville.

The bride is a graduate of Lawrence Lytle High School and is employed by E. J. Smith and Sons in Charlotte.

The groom is a graduate of Rowan High School and UNC-CH. He is presently employed by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation.

This is
Your Paper
Use It

DANCE YOUR WAY THROUGH LIFE

Ballet

Jazz

Baton

Tap

Modern

Qualified Staff of Teachers

REGISTER TODAY

Learn all the latest dances, disco, ballroom, at our beautiful studios. Gain poise, new acquaintances, and added fun in your life. Private lessons available.

YOUNG SCHOOL OF DANCE

2218 1/2 LaSalle Street
Call 394-1672 or 568-1514
Johnsie S. Young, Director

Harris-Teeter Establishes Enterprise Scholarship

The Board of Directors of Harris-Teeter Super Markets, Inc. have established the Harris-Teeter Enterprise Scholarship at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, according to Dr. William M. Britt, vice chancellor for development.

He said that the scholarship honors the founders, William T. Harris and Willis L. Teeter and will provide a $1,000 stipend to a rising senior.

Beasley's Civic

Improvement

Group To Meet

The newly organized "Beasley's Civic Improvement organization" organized by the Reverend O'dell Beasley owner and president of Beasley's Funeral Home, 2706 Newland Road Beatties Ford Road, at I-85 will hold its monthly meeting at Greenville Neighborhood Center, 1330 Spring Street, Wednesday September 6, at 7:30 p.m.

The speaker will be Juanita H. Moore.

Juanita H. Moore is a graduate of the Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing. She received the B.S.N. Degree from North Carolina Central University, and the Master of Education Degree from University of North Carolina and Charlotte. She has been employed as instructor at Mercy School of Nursing since August, 1969.

The topic she will discuss is titled "High Blood Pressure." During the discussion Mrs. Moore will explain the definition of blood pressure; how common is high blood pressure, what causes high blood pressure, how to prevent high blood pressure and human sexuality. Other areas pertaining to high blood pressure will be briefly explored during the presentation.

Fraternity Project

In efforts to raise money for a five group project for the Pi Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Vanessa Worsham is raising money for group four toward their annual drive. Worsham's efforts helps her chances of being named Mardi Gras queen, being crowned November 3 at the Civil Center.

successful organizations possible."

The two men honored operated separated food stores which following their merger became the highly successful Harris-Teeter Super Markets chain.

The document establishing the scholarship cites Harris and Teeter for "a firm policy calling for integrity, sound business practices and commitment to the public," which led to the growth of a super-market chain serving the citizens of the region. "Following their withdrawal from active management in 1971 and their retirement in 1974 both men continue to serve the community and share the fruits of their labors with their fellow citizens as well as serve as Directors of Ruddick Corporation, of which Harris-Teeter is a major subsidiary," the statement said.

NOTICE

CITY BUS
TIMES & ROUTES
WILL CHANGE
SEPTEMBER 4th

For Information:

- Get a new timetable
- Ask your driver
- Call 374-3366

DON'T MISS THE BUS!

Charlotte Transit System

Miller time

Time to head for the best lasting beer you can find
America's quality beer since 1855.