Byron Bullard

Appointed To

SMCA Committee

RALEIGH—Byron Bullard, administrator of Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, has been appointed a member of the state Medical Care Advisory Committee by Dr. Sarah T. Morrow, Secretary of the North Carolina Department of Human Resources.

Bullard will be representing the N.C. Hospital Association on the committee.

The committee is composed of 15 members. The purpose of the committee is to advise the Division of Medical Assistance of the Department of Human Resources on issues involving the state's Medicaid program. The committee also has the responsibility for reviewing proposed rules at public hearings under the Administrative Procedures Act.

Federal regulations require all states to have such an advisory committee. The committee's membership is composed of both health care providers and consumers.

Medicaid is a program designed to provide health care for low-income people. Funds for the program in North Carolina come from federal, state and county revenues. Some 965.8 million dollars is budgeted for the current 1978-79 fiscal year to provide these services for an estimated 322,307 eligible citizens.
