

Scott White Named WBTV News Director

Cullie M. Tarleton, Vice President and General Mgr. of WBT and WBCY, has announced the appointment of Scott R. White to the position of News Director.

White comes to Charlotte from WKIX/WYYD in Raleigh where he was Director of News and Public Affairs. During his six-year tenure at WKIX/WYYD, White garnered numerous prestigious awards including the 1977 Edward R. Murrow

Scott R. White
Award from the national Radio-Television News

Directors Association.

A native of Albion, Mich., White attended Western Michigan University of Kalamazoo. He began his career at the campus radio station and later worked for WKFR Radio in Battle Creek and WKNR Radio in Detroit.

Scott White and his wife, Linda, have two sons—Jeff who is seven, and Todd, age two.

Yvonne Elliman To Appear

In Hawaii Five-O "Musical"

Yvonne Elliman and James Darren guest star in singing and acting roles in a "first" for "Hawaii Five-O," a two-part episode rich in rock singing and disco dancing—both integral elements leading to an explosive plot—to be presented on Thursdays, December 28, and January 4, at 9 p.m. on WBTV, Channel 3.

Ross Martin, Nehemiah Persoff, Richard Dimitri and Antony Ponzini also guest star in the episodes.

Miss Elliman portrays Yvonne Kanekoa, an international entertainer and Hawaii native, whose potential for stardom ignites a three-way war among Five-O Chief Steve McGarrett, played by series star Jack Lord, the dreaded Hawaiian crime syndicate Kumu, and the organized crime syndicate from the West Coast.

In Part I, Ray Santoro, a member of the Kumu, kills Bernie Adams, a member of the mainland syndicate, in order to force his way into partnership with an unwilling Sonny Kanekoa, the owner of a flourishing discotheque. Santoro, impressed by the singing talent of Sonny's sister, Yvonne, tries to take over the management of her from her current manager-songwriter, Johnny Munroe (Darren). Munroe moves to defend himself, and Yvonne realizes that they'll soon be in the middle of what she terms "World War III."

McGarrett is investigating the murder of Adams and he suspects that what he sees is merely the "tip of a very dirty iceberg."

Prominent in the show are Miss Elliman's recorded hits, "In a Stranger's Arms" and "I Can't Get You Out of My Mind," songs which have also been recorded by Darren. The disco music featured on the program are original compositions by

John Cacavas:

Yvonne Elliman appeared on Broadway as Mary Magdalene in the hit musical "Jesus Christ Superstar." She recorded the original cast album of the show and appeared in productions all over the world. She was nominated for a Golden Globe Award for her recreation of the role in the motion picture version of the play. Later, Miss Elliman recorded with Eric Clapton and sang with his band. In 1977 she was awarded the Don Kirshner Rock Award as Best Female Vocalist.

James Darren's credits include the motion pictures, "The Guns of Navarone," "Diamond Head," "Let No Man Write My Epitaph" and "Operation Madball." He has appeared in nightclubs from Las Vegas to London and has just recorded a new song, "Let Me Take You in My Arms Again."
