WBT Easter Egg

Hunt Will Be Held

Easter Sunday

The second annual GREAT WBT EASTER EGG HUNT will take place on Easter Sunday, April 15th, at 2 p.m. in Freedom Park. The event is co-sponsored by the Charlotte Parks and Recreation Department.

The hunt is open to all children ages 3 through 9. Each child must bring his or her own Easter basket.

Hidden inside the roped off hunt area will be 30,000 chocolate eggs and over 200 special eggs containing certificates redeemable for Carowinds tickets, Mayberry ice-cream cones, WBT "Love Charlotte" T-shirts, and other small prizes. There will also be four gold eggs good for brand new bicycles.

Along with the WBT personalities, the WBT Bunny, the WBCY Chicken and Scooby Doo from Carowinds will be on hand to entertain the children. There will also be live bluegrass music by the Kilocycle Kowboys.

120 Girl Scout volunteers will be in the hunt area to assist smaller children.

In the event of rain, the WBT EASTER EGG HUNT will be postponed until 2 p.m. on Monday, April 16th. A postponement announcement will be made on 1110 WBT Radio.

Children participating in the hunt are asked to gather in the bandshell area of Freedom Park.

"The Billion Dollar Threat" Is ABC Movie

America's ace intelligence agent encounters beautiful girls, a steel-armed assassin and flying saucers when he battles a self-proclaimed ultimate criminal who plans to destroy life on Earth if he is not paid $1 billion in "The Billion Dollar Threat," on "The ABC Sunday Night Movie," April 15 at 9 p.m. on WSOC-TV Channel Nine. Agent Robert Sands, sent to an expensive mountain resort to investigate mysterious flying saucer reports, meets up with rich Horatio Black, his villainous steel-armed assistant, Benjamin, and Black's beautiful twin girlfriends. Sands discovers that Black has paramilitary forces engaged in building a secret base in the mountains protected by what are reported to be "flying saucers." Captured by Black, Sands learns that the master criminal plans to extort $1 billion from all the governments of the world by threatening to pierce the Earth's protective ozone layer with a stolen missile. Dale Robinette stars as Robert Sands and Patrick Macnee as arch villain Horatio Black. Keep your out-of-town friends informed on what's happening in Charlotte by sending them a copy of the Charlotte Post each week.
